Postgame Denver at Kansas City:

DENVER DRESSING ROOM:

Saban said: "We got whipped."

He said Kansas City is a good football team. We are not much of anything, a young bunch of people trying to stay alive--- very discouraging. But we go back to work on Tuesday.

How do Chiefs compare with others: . Denver is not in a position to make any comparisons. The Chiefs are last~~er~~ year's champions and played as well today as they ever played.

Asked about whether his plans frustrated: He said he wanted to play good football---- they just destroyed us. We made mistakes early in the game, but as things worked out, they made little difference.

Lonnie Wright, ~~quarterback~~ defensive back, suffered a sprained ankle, Saban said.

Postgame.... Denver at Kansas City.

CHIEFS DRESSING ROOM:

Stram said the defens^e provided us the opportunity and we took advantage of it. In the three ball games we lost, we just didn't take advantage of our chances.

It was a great victory because we had to win to stay in th race. It was a very critical game for us. Anytime you lose two games ~~in~~ in a row, it's most important to win. And if you can win impressively, it has a tendency to give the entire club a lift.

Regarding Dawson: You just can't appreciate the fantastic job does week after week with the pain and hurt. He is a tremendous competitor. ~~I~~ I don't think people realize how much he hurts. He's a real pro.

About the offens^{ive} line: It was simply tremendous. The pass protection given~~s~~ to Len and Lee^(Jacky) and the blocking at the p int of attack was a good as it has been all year.

Stram thought Mike Hudock, center who has been with the club thr weeks, did a fabulous job. We didn't have any leaks up th middle.

About Injuries: We had lots of people hurt, but non^e appears serious enough to miss next week.

About the Denver club: Lou Saban is doing a fine job with these young people. Don't forget, he has 20 rookies on that club and the way they hit and hustle is a high tribute to Saban and his staff.

About Mike Garrett: Garrett hit the holes as crisply and as sharply as he has all year. They gave him more running room ~~that~~ than he has had.
