DENVER BRONCOS OTA QUOTES (6/4/18)

TIGHT END JAKE BUTT

On his focus during OTAs

“You’re out here playing football but your main goal right now is to work your craft. Work the little details of the game. Work your feet in the run game. Feed the top of the routes, pass game. It’s just the little details that you’re trying to work on. You’re not trying to go full speed out here. You want to make sure no one gets hurt, but you’re trying to get better, you’re trying to maximize your time that you do get on the field.”

On how sitting out last year can help him moving forward this season

“I think the biggest thing was just learning how to be a pro. It really is a lot different than college. It’s football and the end of the day, but you’re a professional now. You look around the locker room, and we have a lot of guys that are pros. A lot of great examples that I can learn off of, feed off of and carry that into this offseason.”

On if he enjoys the pace of the offense

“Yeah, I think we all do. We all want to be ready to rock and roll, ready to push the tempo a little bit. We’ve got an advantage here at altitude. So, we’re trying to get in shape. Trying to push the tempo. Get the defense on their heels.”

On what he’s seen from WRs Courtland Sutton and DaeSean Hamilton

“Really, really good young talent. They look great—making a lot of plays too. To be asked to come in on a day like this, they’ve just been here for a few weeks, and they stepped up and handled it well and made plays when their number was called today. We’re excited for them.”

On creating more options on the offense

“We understand. ‘D.T.’ (WR Demaryius Thomas) and ‘E’ (WR Emmanuel Sanders), they’ve been doing it a while now. They’re two really good top-notch receivers. They’re going to be getting a lot of attention on the outside. They’re going to be drawing some double teams. So it’s our responsibility as tight ends and slots to win in these one-on-one matchups on the inside. Whatever that means. We’ve got to make plays when our numbers are called, just to take a little bit of pressure off those guys on the outside.”
