END OF GAME at 3:07 CST

KANSAS CITY 31, DENVER 17.

27 Nov. 1969
Denver at Kansas City

BRONCO DRESSING ROOM: LOU SABAN

"It's a game of the quarterback and the kicker... You decide for yourself on that. When your scorers are having trouble... your in trouble.

"We wouldn't get enough momentum to keep it going. We had a lot of opportunities.

"The early field goals could have balanced the game.

"He missed how many? Four? Outside of that, it was a pretty good game.

"We had to try the onside kick. We had no other choice. It just didn't work. The idea was to bang it hard through that first line of men.

"The pass interception for a touch pretty much put us out of reach.

Kansas City was able to put on the big rush when they needed it.

"We've got two more left. We'll just do our best."

INJURIES: Steve Tensi... bruised chest

John Huard... bruised thigh

Billy Thompson... bicep

Al Denson... rt. shoulder (will be x-rayed.)

CHIEFS DRESSING ROOM:

Coach Stram: "we went into the game with a balanced approach (passing and running) but stuck to the running game because we were able to make yardage.

"We did a good job at the beginning of the game, but had a letdown after Lenny (Dawson) left.

"The second half we had such lousy field position we didn't have any working room."

Asked about Denver's success returning kicks, Stram said, "It was the worst job of covering kick ~~by~~ by us all year. We were catching instead of hitting."

Speaking about Bobby Bell's return of an onside kick for a touchdown, Stram said: "We had our onside kick receiving team in the game. It looked like Denver was surprised that Bobby made such a clean catch. They couldn't have kicked to a better man. He fielded the ball like a shortstop and was off and running."

Commenting about the Denver team, Stram said: "They're a hard hitting team. We have won ~~have~~ so many games in the series, but we have never played tougher people. Anytime we meet the Broncos, it's always a tough physical contest."

About Lenny Dawson, Stram said: "He appears to be o.k. but I didn't want to take a chance using him anymore after he bumped his knee since we had a 17-3 lead."

Stram said ~~that~~ the 10-day layoff before the Chiefs play again comes at a perfect time. "It should help us tremendously as we go into the last part of the season," Stram ~~added~~ added.

Two Chiefs injuries: Arbanas has pinched nerve in his back and Moorman has a strained back.
