Week 15 • Denver (8-5) at Kansas City (4-8) • Arrowhead Stadium • 12:05 p.m. (CST)

BRONCOS SNAP TWO-GAME SKID WITH WIN OVER MIAMI; BATTLE DIVISION-RIVAL K.C. SUNDAY

Kicker Jason Elam's 50-yard field goal with 2:50 remaining gave the Broncos a 20-17 win over Miami Sunday, keeping Denver right in the thick of the AFC playoff hunt. With the score tied 17-17 late in the fourth, quarterback Jake Plummer led the Broncos on an impressive drive and Elam closed the door on the Dolphins with his 16th career game-saving or game-winning field goal. The Broncos captured their eighth win of the season, despite committing three turnovers, by rolling up 415 yards of total offense, and limiting the Dolphins to just 214. Rookie running back Tatum Bell provided a huge spark for Denver, as he piled up 123 yards rushing on 17 carries (7.2) and scored Denver's only two touchdowns, on runs of 7 and 11 yards. Wide receiver Rod Smith led all receivers with eight catches for 97 yards, and Ashley Lelie chipped in two catches for 60 yards. The Broncos improve to 8-5 overall, and currently sit in a tie with Baltimore for the AFC's final Wild Card Playoff spot. The Ravens (8-5), defeated the New York Giants 37-14 Sunday. San Diego, who beat Tampa Bay 31-14, has a two-game lead in the AFC West with three games left to play (at CLE, at INDY, vs. K.C.).

In Week 15, Denver heads out on the road for its final AFC West match-up of the season. The Broncos face Kansas City (4-8) on Sunday, Dec. 19, and kickoff for the game is set for 12:05 p.m. (CST) at Arrowhead Stadium. On the strength of 156 yards rushing and two touchdowns by Quentin Griffin, Denver took the first meeting of the season 34-24 at INVESCO Field at Mile High in the season opener.

THE LAST TIME

at DENVER 34, KANSAS CITY 24
(INVESCO FIELD AT MILE HIGH, 9/12/04)

The Broncos won their season opener for the fourth straight year by defeating division rival Kansas City, 34-24, in front of 75,939 fans at INVESCO Field at Mile High and a national television audience on ESPN's Sunday Night Football.

Second-year running back Quentin Griffin, in just his second career start, led the Broncos charge with three touchdowns (2 rush, 1 rec.) and 156 yards rushing on 23 carries, setting a new franchise record for rushing yards in a season opener.

Kansas City jumped on Denver early after running back Priest Holmes' 2-yard touchdown run completed an eight-play, 80-yard drive on the game's opening drive.

After a 43-yard field goal by Jason Elam narrowed the gap for the Broncos, Denver took a 10-7 lead early in the second quarter when quarterback Jake Plummer hit Griffin for a 1-yard touchdown. The Broncos defense stuffed the Chiefs once again to regain the ball, setting the stage for Griffin's second touchdown—a 25-yard scamper in which the tailback slashed through several defenders en route to the end zone.

Denver opened the second half with a 17-7 lead, but the Chiefs quickly got back in the game after capitalizing on two Broncos turnovers. Plummer's first pass of the half was intercepted by Kansas City linebacker Monty Beisel, setting up a 50-yard field goal by Lawrence Tynes. On the Broncos' next possession, a solid Kansas City pass rush on third down forced Plummer to errantly heave the ball in the air and right into the hands of linebacker Shawn Barber deep in Broncos' territory. The Chiefs took advantage when Holmes scored his second touchdown of the contest on a 4-yard run tying the score at 17.

Griffin stepped up once again on Denver's next drive, as he burst up the middle for a 47-yard touchdown run, the longest of his career. Holmes' day was not finished, however, as he tied the game on a 33-yard touchdown run, his third of the game, to knot the score at 24.

Elam helped the Broncos regain the lead after he booted a 45-yard field goal, and on the Kansas City's next possession, Denver's defense forced the Chiefs to punt. The Broncos responded with a 13-play, 87-yard drive that burned 7:10 on the clock and was capped by a 2-yard touchdown pass from Plummer to Patrick Hape, securing the win for the Broncos.

Denver's offense amassed 413 total yards, including 202 on the ground. Defensive back Champ Bailey was solid in his Broncos debut, notching his 19th career interception in the second quarter and also doubled up as a wide receiver, catching one pass for 11 yards.

Wide receiver Triandos Luke is learning about life in the NFL this season as a rookie. Luke has played in seven of Denver's 13 games and was inactive for the other six. He caught his first NFL pass two weeks ago for 12 yards against Oakland. His most significant contribution has come on punt returns where he has caught 14 for 113 yards with his longest being 21 yards against the Raiders in Oakland. We'll give you a look inside Triandos' world this Thursday as he learns about life in the NFL during his rookie season.

This week's Q&A is with Broncos' linebacker D.J. Williams. Selected by Denver in the first round of the 2004 draft, Williams has made an immediate impact on the defense. WEEK 14: at DENVER 20, MIAMI 17 (INVESCO FIELD AT MILE HIGH, 12/12/04)

Jason Elam's 50-yard field goal in the game's final minutes lifted the Broncos to a 20-17 victory over the Miami Dolphins before a crowd of 75,027 at INVESCO Field at Mile High.

The Broncos, who improved to 8-5 on the season with the win, amassed 415 yards of total offense, including 196 yards on the ground, while limiting Miami to 214 yards total.

Late in the first quarter, the Dolphins capitalized on a Jake Plummer interception when quarterback A.J. Feeley hit Marty Booker for an 8-yard touchdown. Denver tied the game early in the second quarter on a 7-yard touchdown run by rookie Tatum Bell, who finished the game with 123 yards rushing on 17 carries, the first 100-yard performance of his career.

Feeley drove Miami back down the field on the ensuing drive and found tight end Randy McMichael for a 21-yard gain to set up an 11-yard touchdown run by running back Sammy Morris.

With less than two minutes left in the half, Plummer completed three consecutive passes to move the Broncos down to the 11-yard line. Bell scored his second touchdown of the game (third of his career) on the next play with an 11-yard run that knotted the game at 14-14.

After linebacker Al Wilson intercepted a pass by Feeley on the first play of the second half, Elam hit a field goal from 20 yards out to give the Broncos the lead. Dolphins kicker Olindo Mare returned the favor with a 32-yard field goal later in the third quarter to tie the contest at 17.

The teams traded possessions until late in the fourth quarter when Reuben Droughns came up big with a 21-yard run that put Denver on Miami's 34-yard line. The run set the stage for Elam, as he knocked the ball through the uprights for the 16th game-winning field goal of his career with 2:55 remaining.

Miami had once last chance, and on a 4th-and-3 at the Dolphins' 39-yard line Broncos cornerback Kelly Herndon knocked a Feeley pass down and Denver would run the clock out to secure the win.

Bell had a breakout game despite leaving early with a separated left shoulder, posting 123 yards on 17 carries and the two touchdowns. Droughns finished with 62 yards on 18 carries and Rod Smith led all receivers with eight catches for 97 yards.

HEAD COACH MIKE SHANAHAN MONDAY QUOTES

Broncos injury report following the Miami game

"(CB) Willie Middlebrooks: He'll be out for the rest of the season. He'll go on IR (injured reserve). (RB) Tatum Bell has got a second or third degree separation (of his left shoulder). There's a chance he can play. We've had about six or seven people that have had third degree separations who have played the following week. Terrell Davis is one of those players. Tatum would like to play and feels encouraged about it. Really it's handling the pain more than anything else, and we'll find out later on in the week exactly where he's at. (CB) Roc Alexander has a kneecap bruise (right knee) and should be OK. (RB) Reuben Droughns has a nerve pinch in his neck and had an MRI. We should know about that later. Everybody else should be OK, but they're in treatment. (T) George Foster has a mild knee sprain. (DE) Marco Coleman - nerve pinch in his neck. (DT) Monsanto Pope - hyperextension of the elbow. (G) Dan Neil - a bursar bruise. (CB) Kelly Herndon - thigh bruise. (DT) Luther Elliss should be able to come back and practice on Wednesday if there's no setback. (S) Sam Brandon should be all right with his ankle and should be able to go Wednesday. (DL) Trevor Pryce - we're still evaluating that lower back but will practice. (S) John Lynch seems to be OK."

On what part of Willie Middlebrooks' right knee is hurt

"Right in this area between the tibia and the fibula there's a tendon or a ligament, and that thing was torn. So, he's out at a minimum of eight weeks."

On if it feels like last year with the injuries in the secondary

"Yes, I mean, any time you lose a couple guys back there, it's always a setback. Jeff Shoate will come up and we've got a lot of confidence in Jeff. Roc Alexander has gained some valuable experience out there. He's been active for most of the season. But our depth is dwindling."

On CB Jeff Shoate has looked in practice for most of the year

"It's always different in practice than in the games. Jeff has done a good job or else he wouldn't be on our 53-man squad. I've got a lot of confidence in Jeff. He's a very smart player. He can play outside and inside in the nickel. He'll get his opportunity to get some playing time this week."

On if using more safeties in nickel and dime packages

"Usually, it's the same. The reason why you use a nickel or a dime is to get corners matched up on wide receivers, depending if they're using three or four."

On if he intends to acquire another cornerback

"No, we'll stay with what we've got. Unless there's a setback in practice or we lose a guy, we'll stay status quo. We'll bring somebody obviously in for Willie (Middlebrooks). We haven't decided which direction we're going to go there."

On if he thinks Trevor Pryce will still be listed as out this week

"Well, if Trevor says he's 50-50, that would be questionable, so we've just got to wait and see. Doubtful is a 25-percent chance. So if Trevor feels like it's a 50-50 chance, we'll put him down as questionable. 25 percent is doubtful. It all depends on how he practices how he feels. He says he's feeling better when he pushes off his foot according to Greek (Head Athletic Trainer Steve Antonopoulos), so he feels like there's a chance for him to get ready. We'll find out during the week on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday if there's a possibility."

On if Reuben Droughns can gain a spark back down the stretch

"A lot of times a running back will get a lot of carries and he will get tired as the season goes on, and that's why we try and take away some his reps, so we don't beat him up too bad. When you start carrying the ball 30-35 carries a game, it's really tough on somebody's body. To have a guy in there like Tatum (Bell) or Garrison (Hearst), I think will help him."

On if he is disappointed that Tatum Bell may be injured after having such a breakout game against the Dolphins last week

"Well, we're not sure if he's going to be slowed again. We'll just have to wait. He might be full-speed and ready to go. If you can take the pain, you can play. Obviously, he'll have a pad on there. It's an injury that can be injected to alleviate some of the pain. We'll get a chance to see how tough he is because it is tough to play with that type of injury, but people have done it."

On if Reuben Droughns' fumbles are a concern for him

"Any time you fumble, in the back of your mind you know the first thing you have to do is have ball security. So, Reuben's very smart. He knows how important it is not to turn the football over. When you do, you better be aware of it because if you're not, you're not going to play. You still want to have the ability to cut and make runs and not have two hands over the football. So there's a fine line, but you've got to really work on it at practice. People that will work on stripping the ball, so it becomes automatic and he doesn't have to think about it."

On if he is worried about Droughns losing confidence

"(Reuben) better worry about me losing confidence, not him losing confidence. That's where it comes back to practice."

On the fans' right to say or act in whatever way they please

"They can. It happens all the time. We may not like it, but that is the nature of the business. I don't care what sport you are in. That is why you have to keep your cool, keep your focus, and sometimes you lose (composure). You lose it as a player, and sometimes you lose it as a coach. If you have been in the business for a while, you understand what is going to happen, why it happens and how it happens. People get frustrated, but you as a player and you as a coach, have to keep your poise and have to keep your focus. The same things happen on the field. Players will give you a cheap shot on the field, and all of a sudden you start thinking of the player and not your job at hand. That player gets into your mind, and all of a sudden you start thinking about him and not thinking about the job. So many players lose their focus because another player may give them a cheap shot or may do something that is not in the rule book. We talk about those things all the time. Obviously you are referring to Jake (Plummer). The first thing Jake did, I didn't even know what had happened until he came into the locker room and said, 'Hey, I made a bad mistake. I lost my cool, I lost my composure. I had a heckler get to me. I apologize to (Broncos President and CEO) Mr. (Pat) Bowlen, and everybody in this room. I lost it, and it won't happen again.'"

On if inappropriate fan behavior bothers him

"I understand the emotions that go with it. These people are big-time fans. They want you to do well. You are talking about the vast minority of people that say things that are really derogatory in nature. Every once in a while you will get (heckling). I'm sure it happens to people in this room. If somebody calls you out, you have to be smart enough to walk away. You have to understand what your job is. Sometimes it is tough."

On if he spoke with Plummer about the incident

"Just after the game when he talked to me and apologized to Pat (Bowlen) and myself. He explained what happened. Somebody got to him a little bit, so we talked about that."

On the pressure of being the starting QB bothering Plummer

"I think he said it best. Let's not try to over-analyze it. He says, 'Hey, a guy got to me. I did something wrong and I apologize for it.' What more can the guy say? He was embarrassed for himself and for the organization. He knows how to handle himself. You lose your poise, you lose your focus. What people do is say, 'Hey, I made a mistake,' and apologize for it. That's what he did."

"I think Jake understands this game is very tough on a quarterback. If you can't handle that type of heat than usually you don't last very long. I remember times back in the 80s when (the fans) were booing John Elway and asking for Gary Kubiak. You don't think that was tough on John? That was tough on John. It's human nature. It's tough on everybody, but you work your way through it. If you are mentally tough enough, you will survive. If not, you acquiesce and you are gone."

On correcting turnover problems late in the season

"A couple of those things, you make (plays) in practice and a guy trips, and a guy drops a pass. You go back and you try to get more reps. The thing I was disappointed with... We talked about ball security. Reuben (Droughns) had a (fumble) in the red zone and we turned the football over, and all of a sudden that's 18 (missed) points. So you go back, and you keep on working on that red zone, and you keep on working on third downs and turnovers. If you keep on doing that then you have a chance to get better. The thing that is hard to do is move the ball like we are doing. Not very many teams can do that. A lot of people get one chance down there, and if they don't do it, that's the ballgame. We have been able to move the football quite well. We just have to keep on working on the things we are doing poorly. If we do that, we have a chance to win by a couple touchdowns."

BRONCOS HEAD COACH MIKE SHANAHAN

Mike Shanahan in 2004 completes a full decade as head coach of the Denver Broncos, and that decade of measurement against the game's all-time coaches places him among the pro football elite. After the team's 23-13 win over San Diego (9/26), he joined the exclusive club of head coaches to post 100 wins in the first 10 seasons with one club.

No head coach in the NFL has won more games than Mike Shanahan's 106 victories since the start of the 1995 season. Those 106 wins by Shanahan include seven straight in the playoffs (he is the only coach to have produced seven playoff wins in two years) during the 1997 and 1998 World Championship seasons, years in which he firmly established himself among the game's sideline greats. His postseason percentage of .700, on a 7-3 record, is second only to Vince Lombardi (9-1, .900) among coaches with more than five playoff victories.

Under Shanahan's guidance, Denver has: Posted the most wins in pro football history in a two-year period (33 in 1997-98); posted the most wins in pro football history in a three-year period (46 in 1996-98); won the most postseason games ever in a two-year period (seven, 1997-98); won 18 straight games over 1997-98 to tie the all-time NFL record for consecutive wins; been undefeated for three straight regular seasons at home (1996-98), just the second team ever to do so; and posted a 22-2 record in its last 24 games during the back-to-back title years.

He produced consecutive Super Bowl titles, three straight 13-plus win seasons (including postseason), and two AFC West titles from 1996-98. Shanahan led Denver to a 14-2 regular season mark and a 3-0 postseason mark in 1998, taking the Broncos back to the victorious Super Bowl glory they experienced in 1997. In his third season with the Broncos in 1997, Shanahan not only led the Broncos back to the Super Bowl for the first time in eight years, but he directed them to their first ever Super Bowl victory. Only Red Miller (1st year) in 1977 got a Broncos' team to the Super Bowl faster than Shanahan did.

In his 10th year with Denver, he has fashioned a franchise-record regular season home mark of 61-18 (.772), a regular season mark of 99-58 (.631), and an overall mark of 106-61 (.635). His NFL record as a head coach in regular season play is 107-70 (.605) and his overall record is 114-73 (.610).

Over the last 12 years (ninth in Denver and the previous three in San Francisco) Mike Shanahan's offenses have finished number one in the NFL four times, second twice and third twice; in two of those campaigns Denver was just 17 yards and 83 yards short of the number one spot.

In 1998 the defending world champions stormed to their second straight title with an offense that scored 501 points and finished third in the NFL in total yards, while the defense had another spectacular postseason, allowing just 25 points and two touchdowns while sparking a remarkable 13-1 turnover ratio in the playoffs.

In 1997 he directed a Denver offense that scored a total of 583 points (29.2 per game) during the entire 1997 season, the fifth highest total in NFL history and the second highest total in AFC history for a combined regular and postseason. Of course, in 1998 Shanahan's Broncos topped that mark by producing 596 regular and postseason points. The all-time high of 636 points came from the 1994 World Champion San Francisco 49ers, for whom Shanahan was the offensive coordinator.

He led his team to a 12-4 regular season record in 1997, marking the first time in franchise history that the team won 12 or more games in back-to-back seasons.

During his NFL career, Shanahan has been a part of teams that have played in nine conference Championship Games, in addition to his six Super Bowl appearances (three victories), five with Denver and Super Bowl XXIX with San Francisco. In his 26 seasons as a pro and college coach, Shanahan's teams have participated in postseason or bowl games 21 times. Shanahan is a graduate of Eastern Illinois University, and also has a master's degree from that institution.

CHIEFS HEAD COACH DICK VERMEIL

Dick Vermeil was named the ninth head coach in Chiefs history on January 12, 2001 following head coaching stints with Philadelphia ('76-82) and St. Louis ('97-99). He is one of just four coaches in NFL history to lead two different teams to the Super Bowl and has twice been named NFL Coach of the Year.

The Calistoga, California native began his NFL coaching career with the L.A. Rams ('69, '71-73) serving as the team's special teams, RBs, and QBs coach and offensive coordinator. During his tenure as head coach in Philadelphia ('76-82), he compiled a 54-47 record. In '78, Vermeil guided the Eagles to their first playoff appearance in 12 years. He then led the '80 Eagles to a 12-4 record to earn a trip to Super Bowl XV.

Vermeil returned to the sidelines as the head coach of St. Louis for three seasons ('97-99), guiding the Rams to a 13-3 record in '99, concluding the year with a win in Super Bowl XXXIV. A standout quarterback at San Jose State from '63-65, Vermeil served as an assistant at Stanford ('65-68) and UCLA ('70) before taking over the head coaching duties for the Bruins from '74-75.

THE BEST OF THE BEST

Starting weakside linebacker D.J. Williams, the Broncos' leading tackler, has done more than his share during his rookie season to maintain the University of Miami's rich tradition of producing elite NFL linebackers. His 93 tackles (66 solo) put the former Hurricane on pace to rival the rookie tackle totals of other accomplished linebackers from Miami, whose seven linebackers on opening-day rosters this year tied for the most in the NFL.

Year Former Univ. of Miami Rookie Linebacker

1996	Ray Lewis, Baltimore	142 tackles (104 solo)
2004	D.J. Williams, Denver	93 tackles (66 solo)*
1993	Darrin Smith, Dallas	93 tackles (49 solo)
2001	Dan Morgan, Carolina	75 tackles (47 solo)
2000	Nate Webster, Tampa Bay	32 tackles (18 solo)
1993	Jessie Armstead, NY Giants	31 tackles (28 solo)
1993	Mike Barrow, Houston	26 tackles (21 solo)

* - Williams is on pace to finish the season with 114 tackles, a rookie total that would rank behind only Ray Lewis among former Miami linebackers.

HEAD OF THE CLASS

Williams is on pace to record 114 tackles this year, and currently leads the team with 93 (66 solo). If his tackle total remains the highest on the team, it would make him only the second rookie ever to lead the Broncos and mark the first time in 32 years that such a feat has occurred. The last time a rookie led Denver was in 1972 when linebacker Tom Graham, a fourth-round draft choice from Oregon, tied for a team-high 91 tackles.

HOLDING THE OPPONENTS AT BAY

The Broncos have held eight of their 13 opponents under 20 points this season. Under Head Coach Shanahan, they are 67-15 (.817) when they hold their opponents under 20 points. In addition, the club is 44-3 (.936) when holding the opponent to 15 points or less, including six of 10 teams this year. Also, in that time the Broncos have only lost once when holding the opponent to 10 points or less. Below is a list of the 31 games in which Denver's defense has held the opponent to 10 points or under since 1995, (20-0 home and 10-1 on the road).

CENTURY MARK AND BEYOND

The Denver Broncos have had one of the most potent rushing attacks in the NFL since Head Coach Mike Shanahan took over in 1995. In addition to having five different running backs rush for over 1,000 yards in a season (Terrell Davis, Olandis Gary, Mike Anderson, Clinton Portis and Reuben Droughns, who eclipsed the 1,000 yard mark in Week 13 vs. Miami), the Broncos are tops in the NFL with most individual 100-yard games with 75, including seven in the last nine games (six by Reuben Droughns and one by Tatum Bell). Below is a list of the NFL's top teams in 100-yard performers since 1995.

THE DROUGHNS FILE

In Denver's 20-17 win over Miami, Reuben Droughns rushed for 62 yards on 18 carries, and eclipsed the 1,000-yard mark. On the season, he has 1,046 yards rushing on 234 carries (4.5) and four touchdowns. He is the fifth different running back under Head Coach Mike Shanahan to go over 1,000 yards in a season (Terrell Davis, Olandis Gary, Mike Anderson and Clinton Portis).

BETTER LATE THAN NEVER

In his fifth NFL season, Reuben Droughns eclipsed the 1,000-yard mark for the first time in his Broncos career Dec. 12 vs. Miami (currently sits with 1,048 yards on 234 carries). Along with former Denver running back Floyd Little, who also was a first-time 1,000-yard rusher in his fifth NFL season, that is the latest in a career that a Bronco has reached 1,000 yards for the first time.

HOLD THE STUFFING

A very solid offensive line and a powerful running back is a great combination for gaining positive yardage in the run game. Running back Reuben Droughns leads the NFL in terms of not getting stuffed behind the line of scrimmage for negative yards. In 234 attempts this season, Droughns has only been tackled for negative yards 13 times (23 yards), and leads the NFL at 5.6 percent (minimum of 175 carries). In Shanahan's tenure, the Broncos are 83-12 (.874) in games in which they led after three quarters.

(*—the second number is the percentage the quarterback has put his team in position to score, allowing for missed field goals and subtracting those drives ended by the clock and replaced due to injury. Quarterbacks who leave the game during a drive only get a replacement credit if team goes on to earn at least one first down. Blocked punts for safeties counted as drive ended by puny; —does not include plays when not at helm or not truly setting a play in motion, i.e., muffed punts, kneel downs or spiked balls; 12-for [-8] in 2004.)

JACKSONVILLE 7. DENVER 6

Sunday, Sept. 19, 2004 • 1:02 p.m. EDT • ALLTEL Stadium • Jacksonville, Fla.

Weather: 78°, Wind NE 15 mph • Attendance: 69,127 • Time: 3:03

The Broncos fell to 1-1 on the season after a 7-6 defeat at the hands of the Jacksonville Jaguars in front of 69,127 at ALLTEL Stadium.

Despite statistically dominating the contest in terms of total yards, time of possession and first downs, the Broncos failed to reach the end zone and committed a costly turnover with seconds remaining in the fourth quarter.

Jacksonville scored the game's only touchdown with 12:39 left in the second quarter as Byron Leftwich found wide receiver Ernest Wilford for a 12-yard touchdown pass to give the Jaguars a 7-0 lead.

Two Jason Elam field goals (44, 22) narrowed the gap to 7-6 at the end of the first half for the Broncos.

Neither squad could sustain a drive for most of the second half as a total of eight punts were forced by the two defenses.

Denver missed an opportunity to take the lead with 36 seconds remaining in the third quarter after Elam's 51-yard attempt into the wind fell just short.

The Broncos struggled with poor field position in the fourth quarter, starting on their own two, 10, and 11-yard lines in their final three possessions of the game.

With no timeouts remaining and 2:20 left in the game, Broncos quarterback Jake Plummer took control of the offense on Denver's 11-yard line and marched downfield with four straight completions, including a key 20-yard strike to Nate Jackson.

Plummer then scrambled for nine yards and ducked out-of-bounds on the Jacksonville 26-yard line.

After running back Quentin Griffin picked up the first down on a two-yard run, Plummer spiked the ball to stop the clock at 1:07. Two more Griffin runs brought up third down on the Jaguars 23-yard line with 37 seconds remaining.

On the next play, a bad exchange between Plummer and Griffin resulted in a fumble that was recovered by Jacksonville's Akin Ayodele, halting the Broncos' comeback bid.

Plummer completed 23-of-39 passes for 250 yards while Griffin finished with 66 yards on 25 carries. Veteran wideout Rod Smith led all receivers with six receptions for 83 yards.

A stingy defensive effort and a 294-yard passing day by quarterback Jake Plummer helped the Broncos improve to 2-1 with a 23-13 victory over the San Diego Chargers before a crowd of 74,533 at INVESCO Field at Mile High.

Denver scored first on its second drive of the game, as Plummer connected with wide receiver Rod Smith for a 16-yard touchdown to cap off a six-play, 72-yard drive to give the Broncos a 7-0 lead.

Holding on to a 10-3 lead early in the second quarter, the Broncos forced a fumble after safety Keny Kennedy sacked San Diego quarterback Drew Brees and defensive tackle Mario Fatatehi scooped up the ball on the Chargers' 36-yard line. Fatatehi's 8-yard return to the Chargers' 29-yard line helped set up an eventual 23-yard Jason Elam field goal to give Denver a 13-3 lead.

In the second half, a Quentin Griffin fumble on Denver's second play of the third quarter yielded a seven-play, 36-yard drive that ended with a 1-yard touchdown run by Brees to close the gap to 13-10.

On the ensuing drive, the Chargers forced the Broncos to punt, but a roughing the kicker penalty gave Denver new life and the ball on San Diego's 34-yard line. After the Chargers' defense forced Denver into another 4th-down situation, the Broncos opted to go for it, and the result was a 33-yard touchdown strike from Plummer to wide receiver Ashley Lelie to give the Broncos a 20-10 advantage. Elam's 43-yard field goal on the Broncos' second drive of the fourth quarter gave Denver a 23-13 lead they would hold on to.

The Broncos kept San Diego star running back LaDainian Tomlinson in check for most of the contest, limiting the All-Pro to just 60 yards rushing, his lowest rushing output in his last 15 games.

Smith led all receivers with five catches for 75 yards while Plummer completed 25 of 36 passes for 294 yards and two touchdowns for a passer rating of 112.5.

The Broncos improved to 3-1 with a hard-fought 16-13 road victory over Tampa Bay before a crowd of 65,341 at Raymond James Stadium.

The game marked the return of Broncos safety John Lynch to the city in which he played 11 years, and the team he helped lead to a World Championship in 2002.

Denver struck first after a hit by safety Kenoy Kennedy forced Bucs receiver Charles Lee to fumble the ball which was recovered by cornerback Willie Middlebrooks. The Broncos capped off a 43-yard drive with a 5-yard touchdown pass from Jake Plummer to tight end Patrick Happe to take a 7-0 lead.

Early in the second quarter, Denver increased its lead to 10-0 after Plummer hit tight end Jeb Putzier for a 28-yard completion, setting up a 49-yard field goal by Jason Elam. Tampa Bay countered on its next drive when Brad Johnson found wide receiver Michael Clayton for a 51-yard touchdown pass.

After Elam's second field goal of the game (50-yards) gave Denver a 13-7 lead, the Buccaneers mounted a 62-yard drive which culminated in a Martin Gramatica field goal from 28 yards out, cutting the score to 13-10 at halftime.

On their first possession of the second half, the Buccaneers drove down to the Denver 16-yard line, but Denver's defense stepped up, and held Tampa Bay to a 30-yard Gramatica field goal that knotted the game at 13.

In the fourth quarter, however, the Broncos showed their dominance, as they constructed an 84-yard drive that chewed up 6:32 on the clock, and resulted in a 23-yard field goal by Elam, which proved to be the game-winner.

Tampa Bay's Jameel Williams returned the ensuing kickoff 44-yards to the Bucs' 45-yard line, but the Denver's defense once again took control. Middlebrooks knocked down a Johnson pass attempt to wide receiver Tim Brown on 3rd-and-3, forcing Tampa Bay to punt. Denver's offense then insured the win as they killed over seven minutes of the clock, before giving Tampa Bay the ball with just three seconds left in the game. Denver limited the Buccaneers to just 7 yards of total offense in the fourth quarter, and dominated the time of possession (13:20 to 1:40).

In his return to Tampa Bay, Lynch put in a solid effort, delivering several punishing hits and recording seven tackles and two passes defensed. Rookie linebacker D.J. Williams aided the solid defensive effort, leading the team with nine tackles.

After a slow start—just 12 yards rushing in the first-half—Quentin Griffin finished strong with 66 yards, including 48 coming in the fourth quarter.

DENVER 31, OAKLAND 3

Sunday, Oct. 17, 2004 • 1:15 p.m. PDT • Network: Associates Coliseum • Oakland, Calif.

Weather: 67°, Mostly Cloudy, Wind N 15 mph • Attendance: 57,293 • Time: 2:59

The Broncos dominated on both sides of the ball to improve to 5-1 on the season with a 31-3 victory over rival Oakland in front of 62,507 at the Network Associates Coliseum.

Quarterback Jake Plummer tossed three touchdowns and Reuben Droughins rushed for 176 yards on 38 carries to pace the Denver offense attack while the Broncos' top-ranked defense shut down the Raiders, limiting them to just 145 total yards. The Raiders scored first with a 35-yard Sebastian Janikowski field goal, which was set up after linebacker Marques Anderson intercepted a Jake Plummer pass early in the first quarter.

The Broncos responded quickly on the ensuing drive as Plummer found tight end Jeb Putzler in the end zone for a 12-yard score to give his team a 7-3 lead.

Denver wasted no time after getting the ball back at the start of the second quarter as they put together a seven-play, 80-yard drive that ended with a 10-yard touchdown pass from Plummer to tight end Dwayne Carswell.

Plummer threw his third touchdown pass of the first half, a 31-yard strike to wide receiver Ashley Leite, with 4:03 remaining in the second quarter to give Denver a commanding 21-3 advantage.

After Jason Elam booted a 33-yard field goal increasing the Broncos lead in the third quarter, Droughins capped off the scoring with a 4-yard touchdown run, the second rushing touchdown of his career.

Plummer finished the day 11-of-20 passing for 190 yards, three touchdowns and a 106.2 passer rating, while Putzler led all receivers with three receptions for 52 yards and a touchdown in the game.

The victory, Denver's fourth consecutive of the season, also marked Denver's fourth straight win over the Raiders and bumped Mike Shanahan's record to 15-4 overall against Oakland.

The Broncos suffered their second loss of the season at the hands of the Cincinnati Bengals, 23-10, before a national audience on ABC's Monday Night Football and a record crowd of 65,806 at Paul Brown Stadium.

The Bengals struck first in the opening quarter when quarterback Carson Palmer found a wide open Chad Johnson for a 50-yard touchdown pass. He got so open after cornerback Champ Bailey tripped while in man coverage, freeing up the receiver on the play. The Broncos' defense held strong in the first half despite falling behind early as they stuffed Bengals running back Rudi Johnson on a 4th-and-1 attempt on Denver's 5-yard line. Cincinnati drove into the red zone once again on their next possession, but Bailey picked off a Palmer pass intended for Johnson at the 4-yard line to halt the drive.

Unfortunately, Denver's offense was unable to capitalize on the turnover, giving the ball back to the Bengals with an interception of their own, by former Broncos cornerback DeShaun O'Neal. Cincinnati made Denver pay for the turnover, as kicker Shayne Graham booted a 53-yard field goal to give the Bengals a 10-0 lead in the second quarter.

On their next drive, the Broncos capped off an eight-play, 72-yard drive with a 3-yard touchdown pass from Plummer to wide receiver Rod Smith, narrowing the Bengals' lead to 10-7.

In waning moments of the first half, running back Reuben Droughns coughed the ball up, and Cincinnati would capitalize, with a 34-yard Graham field goal to take a 13-7 advantage into the locker room.

A 29-yard field goal by kicker Jason Eam brought the Broncos to within three points in the third quarter (13-10), but Johnson's 36-yard touchdown run two drives later gave the Bengals a 20-10 lead.

Graham hit a 35-yard field goal in the fourth quarter to round out scoring, which was set up by Plummer's second interception of the game.

For the third consecutive week, Droughns eclipsed the century mark in rushing yards, racking up 110 on 24 carries (4.7). Plummer finished the game 23 of 40 passing for 221 yards and a touchdown, but threw two interceptions.

Smith—who caught five passes for 50 yards—eclipsed the 9,000 career receiving yardage mark on his second catch of the game, becoming 31st player in NFL history to achieve this mark.

FINAL TEAM STATISTICS

Despite a record-setting day offensively for the Broncos, the Atlanta Falcons rallied from an early 14-3 deficit to top Denver, 41-28, in front of 75,083 fans at INVESCO Field at Mile High.

The Broncos jumped out to a 7-0 lead on the game's first drive, as quarterback Jake Plummer found tight end Patrick Hape for a one-yard touchdown. After Atlanta's Jay Feely kicked a 24-yard field goal, Denver needed just one play on the ensuing drive to reach pay dirt as Plummer connected with Rod Smith for an 80-yard touchdown, the longest reception of the veteran receiver's career. The pass also tied Plummer's career-long.

The Falcons would narrow Denver's lead to 14-10 on a 21-yard touchdown run by T.J. Duckett, and after Plummer was intercepted on a tipped pass by Patrick Kerney, Vick led his team down field for a 34-yard strike to Peerless Price in the end zone to put Atlanta ahead, 17-14. Plummer's second interception, on the next drive, would yield a 43-yard field goal by Feely near the end of the first half, and a 20-14 lead.

On Atlanta's first possession of the third quarter, Broncos linbacker Al Wilson sacked Vick on a third-and-5, but the play was negated by a defensive holding call on cornerback Lemmy Walls. The drive was extended, and the Falcons capitalized with Warrick Dunn's 5-yard touchdown run, giving Atlanta a 27-14 advantage.

Following a 25-yard touchdown pass from Vick to Price to start of the fourth quarter (34-14), the Broncos closed the gap as Plummer tossed a 7-yard touchdown pass to Darius Watts. Denver had a chance to make it a one-touchdown game on its next possession, as they drove to Atlanta's 7-yard line, but Watts could not handle a Plummer pass in the end zone on fourth down, ending the Broncos' hopes of a comeback.

Plummer finished the day by completing 31-of-55 passes for a career-high and Broncos' record 499 yards passing and tied his personal best with four touchdown passes, but threw three interceptions. Smith also set a career high with 208 yards receiving on nine receptions, which ranks as the franchise's second-best single game output (214 by Shannon Sharpe vs. Kansas City 10/20/02).

The Broncos raced out to a 20-0 first quarter lead and never looked back en route to a 34-13 victory over the New Orleans Saints before a crowd of 64,900 at the Louisiana Superdome.

Denver, which improved to 7-3 on the season, wasted no time jumping on the Saints' defense as running back Reuben Droughins busted out for a 51-yard touchdown run on the team's first offensive play of the game. After the defense forced New Orleans to punt, the Broncos offense needed just three plays to score as quarterback Jake Plummer found wide receiver Ashley Lelie for a 37-yard touchdown pass, increasing the lead to 14-0. Jason Elam kicked field goals of 48 and 34 yards to cap off scoring in the 20-0 first quarter for Denver.

Kicker John Carney got New Orleans on the scoreboard with a 24-yard field goal in the second quarter, and on the Saints' next possession, on 3rd-and-8, Denver's defense put pressure on Saints quarterback Aaron Brooks, forcing a wild throw right into the hands of linebacker Al Wilson, who returned the ball 7 yards for a touchdown. It was Denver's first defensive touchdown of the season and the first interception return for a touchdown in Wilson's career.

A 30-yard touchdown pass from Brooks to wide receiver Dante Stallworth and another field goal by Carney brought New Orleans to within 14 points (27-13) at halftime.

The Broncos capped a 12-play, 76-yard scoring drive early in the fourth quarter with a 19-yard touchdown pass from Plummer to fullback Kyle Johnson, his second touchdown reception of the season, to give Denver a commanding 34-13 advantage.

The Saints threatened to score on the next drive moving down to the Denver 7-yard line, but Broncos cornerback Champ Bailey made an acrobatic diving interception in the end zone on 4th-and-2 to deny the Saints another score. The Saints were again poised to reach the end zone near the end of the fourth quarter, but defensive end Reggie Hayward grabbed Denver's season-high third interception of the game and returned it 76 yards before being brought down at the 5-yard line, ending any threat of a comeback.

Droughins rushed for 166 yards rushing on 28 carries, marking his fifth 100-yard rushing game in six starts this season. Plummer completed 19-of-29 passes for 224 yards and two touchdowns and a passer rating of 111.9.

OAKLAND 25, DENVER 24

Sunday, Nov. 28, 2004 • 6:30 p.m. MST • INVESCO Field at Mile High • Denver, Colo.

Weather: Snow/Fog, 18°, Wind N 7 mph • Attendance: 75,936 • Time: 3:23

On a snowy, frigid evening at INVESCO Field at Mile High, Oakland rallied from an 11-point deficit in the fourth quarter to send the Broncos to a 25-24 defeat in front of a national-television audience on ESPN's Sunday Night Football and 75,936 fans. The Broncos had a chance to win the game after Jake Plummer drove his team downfield in the final minutes of the contest, but a 43-yard Jason Elam field goal attempt was blocked by tackle Langston Walker to seal the victory for Oakland.

Ahead 3-0 in the second quarter, Plummer found wide receiver Rod Smith deep for an 85-yard touchdown pass, giving Denver a 10-0 lead. It marked the eighth-longest pass play in Broncos history, and set career-highs in yardage for both players. Oakland rebounded quickly as Doug Gabriel returned the kickoff to the Raiders 49-yard line, setting up a 42-yard touchdown pass from Kerry Collins to wide receiver Jerry Porter with just 23 seconds remaining in the half.

Oakland capitalized off a Reuben Droughnins fumble at the start of the second half with a 14-yard touchdown pass from Collins to Porter, and took a 13-10 lead. Denver regained control of the game in the fourth quarter, as Plummer found wide receiver Ashley Lelie for a 57-yard strike which set up a Droughnins 3-yard touchdown run, putting the Broncos ahead 17-13. The Broncos upped their lead on Oakland's next drive, as defensive tackle Monsanto Pope tipped a Collins pass at the line of scrimmage which was intercepted by Ellis Johnson, who returned it 32 yards for the score.

With the Broncos holding a 24-13 advantage with six minutes remaining in the game, the Raiders mounted a comeback beginning with a 6-yard touchdown pass from Collins to Ronald Curry, bringing Oakland within five after missing a two-point conversion attempt.

After a 63-yard pass from Collins to Curry brought the Raiders to the Denver 10-yard line, they would take the lead on Porter's third touchdown reception of the game, a five-yard pass from Collins on 4th-and-goal from the 5-yard line with 1:49 left to play in the game.

Down by one, Plummer completed passes of 16, 14, and 12 yards to set up a 43-yard field goal attempt by Elam, but Oakland's Langston Walker batted down the kick to end Denver's comeback hopes.

Droughnins finished the game with 102 yards rushing on 28 attempts, his sixth 100-yard game in the past seven, while Plummer completed 14-of-23 passes for 245 yards with a touchdown and an interception.

The Broncos committed four costly turnovers and fell just short of a fourth-quarter comeback in a 20-17 loss to the San Diego Chargers at Qualcomm Stadium in San Diego, Calif.

The Chargers took a 7-0 lead early in the first quarter after a Plummer pass bounced off the hands of tight end Jeb Putzier and into those of cornerback Drayton Florence. San Diego capitalized on the interception by driving 43 yards on four plays, capped off by a 5-yard LaDainian Tomlinson touchdown run.

Near the end of the first quarter, Broncos cornerback Kelly Herndon knocked the ball loose from the grasp of San Diego wide receiver Eric Parker and defensive end Marco Coleman jumped on it for the recovery. The turnover set up a 16-yard touchdown run by rookie running back Tatum Bell—the first of his career—to tie the score at 7-7.

San Diego regained the lead on a 1-yard touchdown run by Tomlinson, and then added three more points on a Nate Kaeding 23-yard field goal after a Plummer pass was batted down and intercepted by Shaun Phillips at the Denver 17-yard line.

Down 20-7 entering the fourth quarter, a 45-yard pass from quarterback Jake Plummer to wide receiver Rod Smith highlighted a six-play, 65-yard drive that culminated in a 4-yard touchdown run by Reuben Droughins.

Jason Elam kicked a 31-yard field goal on Denver's next drive to bring the Broncos within three points (20-17) with just under 10 minutes remaining in the contest.

After Denver's defense forced the Chargers to punt, Plummer drove the team down the field and Droughins rushed up the middle for 4 yards on 3rd-and-3 to set up 1st-and-goal on the San Diego 7-yard line with 3:45 remaining. Plummer floated a pass high in the air for Smith on a fade to the left side of the end zone, but the ball was deflected in the air and picked off by San Diego's Jerry Wilson. Denver got one final possession late in the fourth quarter and drove to San Diego's 36-yard line before time expired, eliminating the Broncos' chances for a comeback win.

Denver's Ashley Lelie led all receivers with four catches for 105 yards on the day, the fourth 100-yard game of his career.

Kicker Jason Elam's 50-yard field goal in the game's final minutes lifted the Broncos to a 20-17 victory over the Miami Dolphins before a crowd of 75,027 at INVESCO Field at Mile High.

The Broncos, who improved to 8-5 on the season with the win, amassed 415 yards of total offense, including 196 yards on the ground, while limiting Miami to 214 yards total.

Late in the first quarter, the Dolphins capitalized on a Lake Plummer interception when quarterback A.J. Feeley hit Marty Booker for an 8-yard touchdown. Denver tied the game early in the second quarter on a 7-yard touchdown run by rookie Tatum Bell, who finished the game with 123 yards rushing on 17 carries, the first 100-yard performance of his career.

Feeley drove Miami back down the field on the ensuing drive and found tight end Randy McMichael for a 21-yard gain to set up an 11-yard touchdown run by running back Sammy Morris.

With less than two minutes left in the half, Plummer completed three consecutive passes to move the Broncos down to the 11-yard line. Bell scored his second touchdown of the game (third of his career) on the next play with an 11-yard run that knocked the game at 14-14.

After inbacker Al Wilson intercepted a pass by Feeley on the first play of the second half, Elam hit a field goal from 20 yards out to give the Broncos the lead. Dolphins kicker Olindo Mare returned the favor with a 32-yard field goal later in the third quarter to tie the contest at 17.

The teams traded possessions until late in the fourth quarter when Reuben Droughms came up big with a 21-yard run that put Denver on Miami's 34-yard line. The run set the stage for Elam, as he knocked the ball through the uprights for the 16th game-winning field goal of his career with 2:55 remaining.

Miami had once last chance, and on a 4th-and-3 at the Dolphins' 39-yard line Broncos cornerback Kelly Herndon knocked a Feeley pass down and Denver would run the clock out to secure the win.

Bell had a breakout game despite leaving early with a separated left shoulder, posting 123 yards on 17 carries and the two touchdowns. Droughms finished with 62 yards on 18 carries and Rod Smith led all receivers with eight catches for 97 yards.

16 • Jake Plummer • QB • 6-2 • 212 • 8 • Arizona State

Regular Season Games Played/Games Started: 2004: 13/13; Career: 108/106

- He ranks third in the AFC (6th in NFL) with 3,248 passing yards and ranks fifth in the AFC (11th in NFL) with 242 completions.
- In only 13 games this season, Plummer has set a single-season career high in touchdown passes with 22 (he previously threw 18 touchdowns in 2001 and 2002 with the Cardinals).
- His 22 touchdown passes rank third in the AFC (6th in NFL).
- Plummer became only the second quarterback in Broncos history (Craig Morton in 1981) to throw eight touchdowns in a two-game span with four scoring passes vs. Hou. (11/7) and vs. Atl. (10/31).
- His four touchdown passes vs. Hou. (11/7) tied a career high and marked his fourth career four-touchdown game to help him achieve a single-game career-best 137.8 passer rating.
- In throwing for 499 yards vs. Atl. (10/31), Plummer posted the ninth-highest single-game yardage total in NFL history and the highest single-game total in Broncos history.
- His 499 passing yards vs. Atl. (10/31) marked the highest single-game passing total of any quarterback this season.
- His 85-yard touchdown strike to Rod Smith in snowy conditions vs. Oak. (11/28) was the longest pass of his career and the eighth-longest passing play in team history.
- Plummer's come-from-behind win vs. Mia. (12/12) marked his 26th career game-winning or game-tying scoring drive in the fourth quarter or overtime. Of those 26, 19 are "pure" comeback victories, which comprise the highest total of any NFL quarterback since 1995.
- Including this season's totals, Plummer is 17-7 (70.8%) as a Broncos starter (2003-present) during the regular season, marking the fourth-highest winning percentage of any NFL quarterback during that period (Tom Brady, 26-3, 90.0%, Donovan McNabb, 24-5, 82.8% and Peyton Manning, 22-7, 75.9%).
- He threw three touchdowns in the first half vs. Hou. (11/7), marking the fourth time in his career he has accomplished that feat in a half (1st half at Oak. 10/17/04, 1st half at S.D. 9/14/03 and 2nd half vs. Det. 11/18/01).
- Plummer was voted an offensive co-captain by his teammates, joining receiver Rod Smith in that role.

2004 Regular Season:

Plummer's creativity behind center has resulted in several miraculous performances this season as he has completed 242-of-424 passes (57.1%) for 3,248 yards with 22 touchdowns and 17 interceptions in starting all 13 games. An offensive co-captain for the Broncos, Plummer ranks third in the AFC (6th in NFL) in passing yards and ranks fifth in the AFC (11th in NFL) in completions. His touchdown total, a single-season career high, ranks third in the AFC (6th in NFL). He did not throw a touchdown pass and had two interceptions vs. Mia. (12/12), but the quarterback made several key throws in a 16-of-30 (53.3%), 219-yard performance. He completed three passes for 59 yards to three different Broncos (Darius Watts, Ashley Lelie and Rod Smith) in the second quarter to put Denver in position for its second touchdown against the Dolphins in a drive that covered 70 yards in only four plays. Against a stingy Chargers defense at S.D. (12/5), Plummer threw for 278 yards on 16-of-40 (40.0%) passing with four interceptions. He completed three passes of 39 or more yards in San Diego, including a game-long 45-yard pass to Rod Smith on a second-half scoring drive. In snowy, frigid conditions vs. Oak. (11/28), he completed a career-long 85-yard touchdown pass, the eighth-longest passing play in team history, to Rod Smith in the second quarter and finished the game 14-of-23 (60.9%) for 245 yards with one touchdown and one interception. Plummer also connected with Ashley Lelie on a 57-yard pass late against the Raiders, which moved Denver to the Oakland 3-yard line and set up a touchdown run on the next play. He was extremely efficient in Denver's game at N.O. (11/21) and finished the day throwing for two touchdown passes, which moved him ahead of Steve Ramsey for seventh place on the Broncos' all-time touchdown passes list (35), and 224 yards on 19-of-29 (65.5%) passing. His play resulted in a 111.9 passer rating, which was his second consecutive game with a passer rating more than 100.0, and a Denver score on its first four possessions to give it a 20-0 first-quarter lead. Against the Saints, he tossed back-to-back passes of 30 or more yards (33 and 37 yds.) on a first-quarter drive to Ashley Lelie with the latter strike a touchdown pass. He concluded Denver's scoring when he connected with fullback Kyle Johnson in stride for a 19-yard score that earned him his seventh multiple-touchdown game this season. Plummer became only the second quarterback in Broncos history (Craig Morton in 1981) to throw eight touchdowns in a two-game span with stellar outings vs. Hou. (11/7) and vs. Atl. (10/31). In throwing for four touchdowns and 234 yards in a 16-of-24 performance vs. Atl. (10/31), Plummer set a single-game career best with a 137.8 passer rating. He connected with four different Denver players on his scoring passes, including a second-quarter strike to Rod Smith that moved the receiver into first place all-time in touchdowns by a Bronco. Plummer made a brilliant read on Smith's record-setting touchdown as he pump faked, scampered toward the line of scrimmage and found a wide open Smith in the left corner of the end zone. He also connected with Smith on a 9-yard pass in the second quarter to give Smith more receptions than any other player in franchise history. He posted the ninth-highest single-game yardage mark in NFL history and set a franchise record with 499 passing yards on 31-of-55 passing (56.3%) with four touchdowns and three interceptions vs. Atl. (10/31). His four touchdowns against the Falcons tied a career high and were spread out to four different receivers on scoring drives that were all 69 yards or longer, including an 80-yard TD strike to Rod Smith in the first quarter that tied for the longest completion of his career (he also threw an 80-yd. TD pass at St. Louis 12/15/02). Additionally, he moved ahead of Steve DeBerg for eighth place on the Broncos' all-time passing yards list against the Falcons. In Denver's lone Monday night appearance and his 100th-career start at Cin. (10/25), Plummer completed 23-of-40 passes for 221 yards with one touchdown and two interceptions. He moved into ninth place on the Broncos' all-time passing yardage list (ahead of Micky Slaughter) and passed Steve DeBerg for eighth place on the franchise's all-time completions list against the Bengals. He rolled to his right and found Rod Smith for a 3-yard score in the second quarter, marking the Broncos' only touchdown of the game in Cincinnati. He threw three touchdowns, all of which occurred in the first half, at Oak. (10/17) in passing for 190 yards on 11-of-20 passing with one interception to lead the Broncos' offense to 31 unanswered points. Plummer led the Broncos to a 28-point win against the Raiders, the largest margin of victory in a road game against the Raiders in franchise history. His performance at Oakland was his seventh career game with three or more touchdowns, and it marked the third contest in which he threw for three scores in a half. Plummer connected on two of his scoring passes to tight ends while also finding wide receiver Ashley Lelie for a 31-yard score. After throwing a pair of third-quarter interceptions vs. Car. (10/10), Plummer bounced back by directing the Broncos to his 19th-career comeback victory against the Panthers when his 39-yard touchdown pass in the corner of the end zone to Ashley Lelie capped off an 87-yard drive early in the final period. His comeback against the Panthers marked his 25th game-winning or game-tying scoring drive in the fourth quarter or overtime. He finished the game against the Panthers with 226 yards on 17-of-29 passing with two touchdowns and two interceptions. He guided Denver to a win at T.B. (10/3) with 138 yards on 13-of-30 passing with one touchdown and no interceptions. Plummer fooled the Buccaneers' defense on a bootleg before throwing a 5-yard score for Denver's lone touchdown. He efficiently managed Denver's offense in the fourth quarter against the Buccaneers as the Broncos held onto the ball for 13:20 in the final period, ensuring Plummer of his 24th game-winning or game-tying scoring drive in the fourth quarter or overtime. Plummer threw for a season-high 294 yards and two touchdowns on 25-of-36 passing (69.4%) vs. S.D. (9/26). His 294 passing yards were the most he's had in a game since Nov. 18, 2001, vs. Detroit. He threw a clutch 33-yard touchdown strike to wide receiver Ashley Lelie on fourth-and-9 in the third quarter with the Chargers trailing by only 3. In the second quarter against the Chargers, he moved into 10th place on the Broncos' all-time passing yards list, ahead of John McCormick. He threw for a then-season-high 250 yards on 23-of-39 passing with no touchdowns or interceptions at Jac. (9/19) while also scrambling for 24 yards on the ground. He hit wide receiver Ashley Lelie in stride for a 39-yard gain on the Broncos' 10-play, 76-yard drive at the end of the second half that set up Denver's second field goal of the game. Plummer directed the Broncos to a win in their season opener vs. K.C. (9/12) by completing 18-of-29 passes (with completions to eight different receivers) for a game-high 230 yards, two touchdowns and two interceptions. He connected with WR Ashley Lelie for a 58-yard completion in the third quarter and also proved to be a threat on the ground, setting a career-high with eight rushes. Plummer led a pivotal 13-play, 87-yard touchdown drive late in the game that ate up 7:10 and resulted in a 2-yard touchdown pass to seal Denver's win. The win was his 23rd career game-winning or game-tying fourth-quarter scoring drive in the fourth quarter or overtime.

Regular Season Games Played/Games Started: 2004: 11/0; Career: 11/0

- Bell leads all AFC rookies (5th among NFL rookies) in rushing yards with 211.
- With 123 rushing yards vs. Mia. (12/12), Bell joined teammates Reuben Droughns and Quentin Griffin as the third Bronco to post at least one 100-yard game this year, marking only the second time in team history that such a feat has occurred (1995 – Terrell Davis, Glyn Milburn and Aaron Craver).
- Bell scored his first career touchdown on a 16-yard run at S.D. (12/5).

2004 Regular Season: Bell has displayed his quickness and potential during his rookie season, and the promising running back has rushed 38 times for 211 yards (5.6 avg.) with three touchdowns through 11 games. Bell joined teammates Reuben Droughns and Quentin Griffin as the third Bronco this season to post at least one 100-yard game (vs. Mia. 12/12), marking only the second time in franchise history that such a feat has occurred. Bell leads all AFC rookies (5th among NFL rookies) in rushing yards this year. He also recently has begun to show his ability on special teams, making four tackles on coverage units to rank 10th on the Broncos in that category. Bell posted the first 100-yard game of his career vs. Mia. (12/12) with 123 yards on 17 carries (7.2 avg.) with two touchdowns. He exploded for 81 yards in the first half alone against the Dolphins, including slashing touchdown runs of seven and 11 yards, before he was removed from the game late in the third quarter with a sprained left shoulder. Bell had a career-long 29-yard run around the left side early in the third quarter against the Dolphins that set up a 20-yard field goal. He scored his first career touchdown on a 16-yard run at S.D. (12/5) and totaled a career-best 31 yards on seven carries (4.4 avg.) during a game in which he saw the most extensive action of his rookie season. Bell played on special teams only vs. Oak. (11/28). He made a team-high three special teams tackles at N.O. (11/21) in a game that did not see him record a rushing statistic. He chased down Saints kick returner Michael Lewis on a second-quarter return during which Lewis used his elusiveness to gain 26 yards before Bell corralled him. Bell competed on special teams vs. Hou. (11/7). He was inactive for Denver's game vs. Atl. (10/31) with a hamstring injury suffered a week earlier. While he did not record a rush at Cin. (10/25) on Monday Night Football, the rookie contributed on special teams against the Bengals. Bell saw the most action he's seen all year at Oak. (10/17) by rushing six times for 25 yards (4.2 avg.). He was a factor on special teams against the Raiders, making the first tackle of his career on that unit. All of his yards against the Raiders came in relief of starter Reuben Droughns in the fourth quarter, including a 13-yard scamper around the left side on third-and-5. In Denver's comeback win vs. Car. (10/10), both of Bell's carries came in the first quarter to give the back a total of five yards for the game. At T.B. (10/3), Bell returned from the rib injury that kept him out of Denver's previous game to play on special teams only against the Buccaneers. He was inactive vs. S.D. (9/26) with a rib injury that he suffered in practice leading up to the game. In Denver's game at Jac. (9/19), Bell backed up Quentin Griffin and rushed four times for 16 yards (4.0 avg.) with three of his four runs coming in the first quarter. Bell primarily saw action on special teams in his NFL debut vs. K.C. (9/12) but did rush on consecutive plays on a fourth-quarter drive to total 11 yards.

2004 Regular Season:

Droughns' bruising running style makes him difficult to tackle after initial contact, and he has rushed for more than 100 yards in six of Denver's last nine games (averaging 112.9 ypg.) as its featured running back after beginning the season as a fullback. In 13 games (12 starts), Droughns leads the Broncos in rushing with 1,046 yards on 234 carries (4.5 avg.) with four touchdowns while catching 28 passes for 197 yards (7.0 avg.) with a score. He is the fifth different Bronco in the last 10 years to rush for more than 1,000 yards and posted the franchise's 16th 1,000-yard season this year. Additionally, the fifth-year back tied Floyd Little (1971) for the latest in a career that a Bronco has posted his first 1,000-yard season. While only starting nine games at running back, he ranks seventh in the AFC (10th NFL) in rushing yards. He owns three of the top 16 rushing performances in the NFL this season (193 yds. vs. Car. 10/10, 176 yds. at Oak. 10/17 and 166 yds. at N.O. 11/21). He has accounted for a team-high 70 first downs (58 rushing, 12 receiving) to rank fourth in the AFC (5th in NFL). His production on special teams earned him AFC Special Teams Player of the Month honors for September to mark the first time a Broncos kick return garnered that award. Droughns' success on special teams extends to punt and kick coverage, where he has made four tackles to rank 10th on the team. He posted the franchise's 16th 1,000-yard season and the first of his career after his 18-carry, 62-yard (3.4 avg.) day vs. Mia. (12/12). He also returned a kick (17 yds.) for the first time in four weeks against Miami. Droughns had a quiet day at S.D. (12/5), rushing only 14 times (his lowest number of attempts in eight starts at running back this year) for 38 yards (2.7 avg.), including a 4-yard touchdown run early in the fourth (11/28), Droughns eclipsed the 100-yard mark for the sixth time in his last seven games with 102 yards on 28 carries (3.6 avg.) with a touchdown, a 3-yard score early in the fourth quarter. He recorded the longest run of his career on the Broncos' first play from scrimmage at N.O. Droughns, who also caught two passes for 25 yards against the Saints (12.5 avg.), was difficult to contain in the first half as he gained 106 yards (10.6 avg.) by halftime. He put up solid numbers vs. Hou. (11/7) by picking up 120 yards on 29 carries (4.1 avg.). Against the Texans, he gained nearly 40 yards each quarter in one of the most consistent performances of his career. While having a quiet day rushing the ball vs. Atl. (10/31) in only gaining 49 yards on 15 carries (3.3 avg.), Droughns posted a career-high six receptions and 63 yards receiving (10.5 avg.) against the Falcons. Most of his action against Atlanta came on the Broncos' opening drive of the game as he rushed five times for 17 yards and caught an 11-yard pass to help Denver score a touchdown on its first possession. He eclipsed the 100-yard mark for the third consecutive game at Cin. (10/25) on Monday Night Football, rushing for 110 yards on 24 carries (4.6 avg.). He also tied a career high with four receptions for 20 yards (5.0 avg.) against the Bengals. Droughns, who rushed for 49 yards in the second quarter and gained five yards or more on 10 of his final 12 rushes before halftime against the Bengals, did not carry the ball in the fourth quarter as the Broncos' attempted to rally from a 10-point deficit. He set a franchise record for most carries in a non-overtime game at Oak. (10/17) with 38 rushes for 176 yards (4.6 avg.) with one touchdown to earn FedEx Ground NFL Player of the Week honors. His 38 carries in a game are the most by a running back in the NFL this season. Droughns had 82 yards in the second quarter against the Raiders, including four runs of more than 10 yards, to help him record the first 100-yard half of his career (103 total yards). With regular starter Quentin Griffin inactive vs. Car. (10/10) with an ankle injury, Droughns took advantage of his first start at tailback as a Bronco by rushing for 193 yards on 30 carries (6.4 avg.) to mark the highest rushing total by a Denver player in his first start at running back and the ninth-highest rushing total by a Broncos back in the regular season (10th in any game). He registered most of his yards in bruising fashion, and it took several Panthers to bring him down on a 15-yard third-down run in the second quarter that set up his 5-yard receiving touchdown, which was his first score this season. His career rushing day marked the second-highest single-game rushing output by an NFL back through Week 7. Droughns also caught a career-high four passes for 18 yards while totaling 10 of the Broncos' 23 first downs (8 rushing, 2 receiving) against the Panthers. In addition to returning two kicks for 45 yards (22.5 avg.) at T.B. He pulled Buccaneers defensive back Dwight Smith with him to pick up a tough third-and-1 with Denver at its 19-yard line late in a close game. Droughns gained a career-high 137 yards on four returns (34.3 avg.) vs. S.D. (9/26). All four of his returns that day went for 20 or more yards, including a 48-yarder. He also had a team-high three special teams tackles against San Diego. He returned two kicks for 49 yards (24.5 avg.) at Jac. (9/19) while catching his first pass of the year. His 2-yard reception converted a crucial third-and-1 in the third quarter with Denver trailing by 1. In the Broncos' season opener vs. K.C. (9/12), Droughns started at fullback, clearing the way for Quentin Griffin's franchise opening-day record 156 yards, and he was a major contributor on special teams despite battling leg cramps. He returned two kicks for 58 yards (29.0 avg.) to lead all NFL Wk. 1 players in return yardage. Droughns began Denver's first possession of the season with a 32-yard return.

- He served as the Broncos' primary kick returner for two games, returning four kicks for 52 yards (13.0 avg.).

2004 Regular Season:

Griffin showed flashes of big-play ability in six games (four starts) at running back before he was placed on injured reserve Oct. 27 with a torn ACL in his right knee, which was repaired Nov. 9. Before the injury, he collected 311 yards on 85 carries (3.7 avg.) with two touchdowns while catching 10 passes for 68 yards (6.8 avg.) with a score. The elusive Griffin was used as the Broncos' primary kick returner for two games and gained 52 yards returning four kicks (13.0 avg.) He suffered a torn ACL in his right knee returning a kick on the opening kickoff of the second half at Cin. (10/25) on Monday Night Football and did not return. Although he did not record a rush against Cincinnati, Griffin returned three kickoffs for 33 yards (11.0 avg.), including a 21-yard return in the second quarter that set up Denver's lone touchdown drive, before injuring his knee. Back in the lineup after missing the previous week with an ankle injury, Griffin totaled four carries for 16 yards (4.0 avg.) at Oak. (10/17). He returned the first kickoff of his career against the Raiders, taking a first-quarter kick 19 yards to put the Broncos in excellent field position to begin their first touchdown drive of the game. He was inactive vs. Car. (10/10) with an ankle injury. The second-year back picked up 66 yards on 21 carries (3.1 avg.) at T.B. (10/3), including 44 fourth-quarter yards, while catching a 15-yard pass. Griffin broke free for a 12-yard run in the fourth quarter that put Denver in position for the field goal that proved to be the game winner. He struggled with the Chargers' 3-4 defense vs. S.D. (9/26) and was held to a season-low seven yards on 12 carries (0.6 avg.). One of his three catches against the Chargers went for 22 yards on a swing pass and moved Denver into scoring range early in the second quarter, setting up a field goal. He also had a key block on a Chargers blitz in the third quarter, clearing the way for a 16-yard Jake Plummer completion on a touchdown drive. At Jac. (9/19), the Jaguars' stingy run defense limited Griffin to 66 yards rushing on 25 carries (2.6 avg.), but his five catches for 29 yards (5.8 avg.) were a career high and more than any Jaguars receiver totaled. He was unable to secure Jake Plummer's handoff with the Broncos in position for a game-winning field goal with less than a minute in the game, allowing the Jaguars to end Denver's comeback attempt. Griffin enjoyed a record-setting day vs. K.C. (9/12) as he set a franchise record for most rushing yards in a season opener with a career and game-high 156 yards on 23 carries (6.8 avg.) and scored the first three touchdowns (two rush, one reception) of his career. His opening-weekend numbers ranked at the top of several offensive categories, including rushing yards (156 – second in NFL), first downs (eight – tied for third in the league), scoring (18 points – tied for first in the league) and total yards from scrimmage (157 – tied for third in the AFC). The 156 yards he totaled on the ground are the 10th-highest single-game rushing total gained this season. Griffin scored on 25 and 47-yard touchdown runs against the Chiefs, with the latter run coming in the third quarter with the score tied at 17, and he added a 1-yard touchdown catch for the first scoring reception of his career.

Regular Season Games Played/Games Started: 2004: 5/0; Career: 124/105

2004 Regular Season:

Hearst has provided Denver depth at running back in five games, rushing 11 times for 33 yards (3.0 avg.) and catching a 5-yard pass. He was inactive vs. Mia. (12/12). Hearst did not play at S.D. (12/5). He ran once for two yards vs. Oak. (11/28), giving starter Reuben Droughns a quick rest in the second quarter. When the Broncos kneeled on the ball to run out the clock in a win at N.O. (11/21), Hearst recorded his only snaps that day on offense. He saw his most extensive action of the season vs. Hou. (11/7), rushing five times for 13 yards (2.6 avg.). His carries against the Texans were his first rushing attempts in more than a month. His 3-yard run for a first down late in the second quarter against Houston occurred on the play before Jake Plummer's 40-yard touchdown pass to Ashley Lelie. Although active, he did not play vs. Atl. (10/31). Hearst was inactive for Denver's games at Cin. (10/25) and at Oak. (10/17). He dressed vs. Car. (10/10) but did not see any playing time against the Panthers. Although fully recovered from the left ankle sprain that hampered him for the previous two weeks, Hearst was held out of Denver's game at T.B. (10/3). In his first game back since missing time with a left ankle sprain, Hearst rushed three times and picked up a team-high 13 yards (4.3 avg.) against a stingy run defense vs. S.D. (9/26). His 11-yard run against the Chargers moved Denver into the Chargers' red zone and set up a touchdown pass a few plays later. He missed Denver's game at Jac. (9/19) with a left ankle sprain. At home vs. K.C. (9/12) to open the season, Hearst rushed twice for five yards and caught one pass for five yards before suffering a left ankle sprain. His 6-yard run in the second quarter put Denver inside Kansas City's red zone and set up a Jason Elam field goal.

39 • Kyle Johnson • RB • 6-0 • 242 • 2 • Syracuse

Regular Season Games Played/Games Started: 2004: 13/3; Career: 13/3

• Johnson has two receiving touchdowns this year (a 23-yarder vs. Hou. (11/7) and a 19-yarder at N.O. (11/21)) and has nine receptions for 126 yds. (14.0 avg.)

2004 Regular Season:

Johnson has become a reliable pass-catcher and lead blocker at the fullback position, playing in all 13 of the Broncos' games (3 starts). Statistically, his biggest contributions this season have come as a pass catcher who has tallied nine receptions for 126 yards (14.0 avg.) with two touchdowns. He also has been a solid contributor on special teams, making nine tackles on kickoff and punt coverage to rank third on the Broncos. He hauled in a Jake Plummer pass along the sideline and used a nifty move to gain 14 yards on the Broncos' first touchdown drive vs. Mia. (12/12), and he finished the game with two receptions for 22 yards (11.0 avg.) along with two special teams tackles. Johnson started at S.D. (12/5) and played extensively against the Chargers but did not record an offensive statistic. Johnson hauled in two second-quarter passes to record eight yards (4.0 avg.) receiving vs. Oak. (11/28), and he added a stop on special teams. In his second career start at N.O. (11/21), he used his speed to turn a short catch into a 19-yard score early in the fourth quarter. He also served as a lead blocker for Reuben Droughns, helping the back gain 166 yards. Johnson had a career day vs. Hou. (11/7), setting personal bests with three receptions for 46 yards (15.3 avg.), including a 23-yard touchdown reception for his first career score. Johnson did most of the work on his third-quarter touchdown catch against the Texans as he broke several tackles along the Texans sideline to scamper into the end zone. He also displayed his toughness after a 5-yard fourth-quarter reception by withstanding a big hit from Houston cornerback Dunta Robinson, who was shaken up as a result of the collision. On special teams against the Texans, Johnson made two tackles. Because Denver opened up in a two-tight end set vs. Atl. (10/31), he did not start against the Falcons but did play extensively at fullback and on special teams. Johnson recorded his first career start at Cin. (10/25) on Monday Night Football and was involved in Denver's special teams effort, tackling Bengals return man Kenny Watson on a third-quarter kickoff. He played special teams only at Oak. (10/17). With Reuben Droughns starting at running back vs. Car. (10/10), Johnson replaced Droughns as the team's primary fullback against the Panthers but did not start because Denver opened the game in a three-wide receiver set, and he helped block for Droughns as he recorded the ninth-highest single-game rushing total (193 yds.) in franchise history. He made a 31-yard catch, the first of his career, on a quick pass from Jake Plummer over the middle in the first quarter that moved the Broncos into Carolina territory on their drive that resulted in their second field goal of the game. Johnson briefly played at fullback at T.B. (10/3), including an appearance on the Broncos' fourth-quarter scoring drive that set up Denver's field goal that proved to be the game winner. Additionally, he made his first career tackle on special teams against the Buccaneers. He saw one play at fullback and played substantially on special teams vs. S.D. (9/26). At Jac. (9/19), Johnson played on special teams only. He saw most of his action on special teams vs. K.C. (9/12) in Denver's season opener while also filling in sparingly at fullback. He had a key block on a 32-yard kick return by Roc Alexander in the third quarter against the Chiefs.

14 • Nate Jackson • WR • 6-3 • 223 • 2 • Menlo

Regular Season Games Played/Games Started: 2004: 12/0; Career: 13/0

2004 Regular Season:

Jackson emerged as an option at receiver for the Broncos, playing in 12 games and catching eight passes for 73 yards (9.1 avg.), before he was placed on injured reserve Dec. 7, with a fractured left ankle. He also made a difference on special teams by collecting seven tackles on kickoff and punt coverage. Jackson played on offense and special teams at S.D. (12/5), where he made one tackle, before a left ankle sprain forced him out of the game in the fourth quarter. He did not record a catch vs. Oak. (11/28) or at N.O. (11/21) but did compete on special teams. In the late-November game against the Raiders, he tied for the team-high with two special teams tackles. Jackson played receiver vs. Hou. (11/7) as well as special teams, and he drew a 15-yard unnecessary roughness penalty on a second-quarter punt return that set up Denver's third touchdown of the game. Jackson was tangled up on the ground with the Texans' Jonathan Wells but did not retaliate against Wells' aggressive play, forcing the penalty. Although he was held without a catch vs. Atl. (10/31), he caught Falcons punt returner Allen Rossum from behind for a tackle to stop a 39-yard third-quarter return. Jackson enjoyed a career game on Monday Night Football at Cin. (10/25), setting career highs in receptions (4) and receiving yards (33) to total an 8.3 yards-per-reception average. His four receptions against the Bengals equaled his total reception output for his seven career games played up to that point. Jackson did not have a catch against the Bengals until the fourth quarter when he made several clutch receptions, including back-to-back 8-yard grabs with Denver looking to mount a comeback. At Oak. (10/17) in front of many of the fans who supported him when he played at nearby Menlo College, Jackson appeared on offense but did not make a catch. He caught a pass in a game for the third time this season vs. Car. (10/10) with a 6-yard reception in the third quarter. His lone catch at T.B. (10/3), a 9-yarder along the sideline, occurred during a crucial fourth-quarter drive that set up a Denver field goal that proved to be the game winner. Jackson appeared at wide receiver in a few situations vs. S.D. (9/26) while also playing on special teams, making two tackles on that unit. He made the first two catches of his career at Jac. (9/19) during the Broncos' final drive of the game. The first catch of his career was a 5-yard grab just before the two-minute warning, and he followed that up with a 20-yard reception (the longest catch on that drive) that put Denver in scoring position. He saw the majority of his playing time vs. K.C. (9/12) on special teams and had limited duty on offense, where he did not make a catch.

- All six of his touchdown receptions have been longer than 30 yards (37, 40, 35, 31, 39 and 33 yds.), and he leads the NFL in touchdown receptions greater than 30 yards.
- With six touchdown catches of 30 or more yards this season, he has posted the second-highest single-season total of touchdown receptions greater than 30 yards in franchise history (behind Anthony Miller's 10 in 1995).
- Lelie leads the Broncos with a 19.8 avg. on receptions, which ranks second in the NFL among eligible receivers.
- His 45 catches are second most on the Broncos, with four of his receptions providing the game-winning points (at N.O. 11/21, vs. Hou. 11/7, vs. Car. 10/10 and vs. S.D. 9/26).
- He posted the fourth 100-yard receiving game of his career and first this season at S.D. (12/5).
- Lelie recorded back-to-back six-catch games at Cin. (10/25) and vs. Atl. (10/31).
- He made an acrobatic 33-yard touchdown catch in the end zone from Jake Plummer on fourth-and-9 vs. S.D. (9/26) that proved to be the game-winning score.
- Against the Panthers (10/10), he hauled in a 39-yard fourth-quarter Jake Plummer pass in the corner of the end zone that proved to be the game winner.

2004 Regular Season:

Lelie's size and ability to get down the field have given the Broncos' offense a deep threat this season, and he has made several big plays in crucial situations on the way to leading the team in yards-per-catch average (19.8 avg.) and ranking second in the NFL in that statistic. Additionally, he stands second on the team with 45 receptions and 889 receiving yards. All six of Lelie's touchdown receptions have been longer than 30 yards (37, 40, 35, 31, 39 and 33 yds.), and he leads the NFL in that statistic. Additionally, his six touchdown receptions of more than 30 yards ranks as the second-highest single-season total in franchise history (Anthony Miller had 10 in 1995). He showed great concentration and hand strength at Mia. (12/22) by catching a 32-yard pass over Dolphins cornerback Sam Madison in a two-catch, 60-yard (30.0 avg.) game. Lelie tallied the fourth 100-yard receiving game of his career and his first this year at S.D. (12/5) with a game-high 105 receiving yards on four catches (26.3 avg.). He continued to show his ability to haul in the deep ball against the Chargers, catching passes of 44 and 36 yards in the first quarter. In snowy, frigid conditions vs. Oak. (11/28), Lelie led Denver in receptions with four catches for 80 yards (20.0 avg.). The majority of his yards against the Raiders came on a 57-yard, fourth-quarter catch in which he pulled in the ball and stumbled to the ground before gaining an additional 10 yards to the Oakland 3-yard line, setting up a touchdown run on the next play. He came up with his two biggest receptions on back-to-back plays in the first quarter at N.O. (11/21) by catching a 33-yard pass from Jake Plummer before hauling in a 37-yard touchdown. He finished the Broncos' game against the Saints with three receptions for 79 yards (26.3 avg.) and a touchdown. Lelie hauled in his fifth touchdown catch of the season longer than 30 yards vs. Hou. (11/7) with a 40-yard touchdown reception in the second quarter, and he finished the game with a team-high four catches and 81 yards receiving (20.3 avg.). One of his biggest plays vs. Houston was not a catch but rather a 36-yard pass interference call he drew on Texans cornerback Aaron Glenn in the first quarter that helped Denver set up its first touchdown of the game. He recorded his second consecutive six-catch game vs. Ail. (10/31) as he collected a season-high 94 receiving yards, including a 35-yard touchdown catch. He turned in a big fourth quarter against the Falcons by collecting 54 receiving yards on a single drive (13, 6 and 35-yard catches) that ended with his touchdown reception. On Monday Night Football at Cin. (10/25), Lelie had a team-high six catches for 82 yards. He hauled in a 35-yard pass in the third quarter that put the Broncos inside Cincinnati's 20-yard line to set up a field goal, which trimmed the Bengals' lead to 3. He came down with a 31-yard touchdown in the second quarter at Oak. (10/17) on his way to making two catches for 45 yards (22.5 avg.) against the Raiders. On third down in the fourth quarter vs. Car. (10/10) with the Broncos trailing by four, Lelie made a 39-yard, over-the-shoulder, touchdown catch in the corner of the end zone that proved to be the game winner, marking the third consecutive week that he was involved in the game-changing play. He added another catch against the Panthers to total 52 yards on two catches (26.0 avg.). Although he only caught one pass for three yards at T.B. (10/3), his effort in going after a fourth-quarter pass helped result in a 37-yard pass interference call that put Denver in position to make a field goal that proved to be the game winner. Lelie pulled down a spectacular 33-yard touchdown grab, which proved to be the game-winner, over the head of Chargers cornerback Quentin Jammer on fourth-and-9 in the third quarter vs. S.D. (9/26) as part of a four-catch, 67-yard (16.8 avg.) effort vs. the Chargers. He recorded his first rushing statistics of the season that day, rushing twice on reverses for six yards (3.0 avg.). He caught three passes for 53 yards (17.7 avg.) at Jac. (9/19) in a performance highlighted by a 39-yard catch that moved the Broncos down to Jacksonville's 6-yard line and set up a field goal right before the half. He also made a tough 8-yard catch on a third down with Denver driving at the end of the game. Lelie hauled in a 58-yard strike from Jake Plummer vs. K.C. (9/12) to begin a Denver series in the third quarter on his way to recording 88 yards receiving on four catches (22.0 avg.) against the Chiefs. The 58-yard catch was the second-longest reception on opening weekend in the NFL. The 58-yard reception stands as Denver's longest play from scrimmage this year. With the score tied at 24, his 22-yard catch to begin the fourth quarter set up a field goal that eventually proved to be the game winner. Lelie also had a key block on Quentin Griffin's 25-yard touchdown run in the second quarter.

Regular Season Games Played/Games Started: 2004: 11/0; Career: 38/5

2004 Regular Season:

Chukwurah's primary position is a backup middle linebacker, but most of his action on defense this season has come as a defensive end during pass-rush situations. He has played in 11 games since recovering from a lower-back injury that kept him out of the season opener and has totaled four tackles (3 solo), one sack (-12 yds.), one forced fumble and one pass breakup as well as making five tackles on special teams. He tallied a tackle on defense as an end as well as on special teams vs. Mia. (12/12). Chukwurah had a big day on special teams at S.D. (12/5) as he made two tackles on the unit, including a takedown of Chargers punt returner Tim Dwight on a 21-yard return. He showed his ability covering kickoffs vs. Oak. (11/28) by tackling J.R. Redmond at the end of a 31-yard second-quarter return. Along with forcing a fumble, Chukwurah registered his first sack of the season (-12 yds.) at N.O. (11/21) just before the two-minute warning of the first half on Saints quarterback Aaron Brooks as part of a two-tackles (1 solo) game. His pressure on Brooks on a fourth-quarter pass resulted in a Reggie Hayward interception that was returned 76 yards to the Saints' 5-yard line. He made his first tackle of the season on special teams as well as defensively vs. Hou. (11/7) while also playing at defensive end. Chukwurah saw some snaps at defensive end in pass-rush situations vs. Atl. (10/31) and at Cin. (10/25) on Monday Night Football. He was inactive for Denver's game at Oak. (10/17) with a quadriceps injury. During a crucial third-down attempt in the fourth quarter vs. Car. (10/10), Chukwurah lined up at defensive end and swatted Jake Delhomme's arm to break up the pass for an incompletion. At T.B. (10/3), Chukwurah did not record a tackle but drilled the Buccaneers' Brad Johnson just after the quarterback released the ball on a third-quarter completion. In Denver's games vs. S.D. (9/26) and at Jac. (9/19), Chukwurah was used as a defensive end during pass-rush situations and also contributed on special teams. He was inactive for the Broncos' season opener vs. K.C. (9/12) because of a lower-back injury.

Alexander recently has been looked to as an option at kick returner, recording 18 returns for 368 yards (20.4 avg.). He's been a spark plug on kick/punt coverage, making 10 tackles for the second-highest total on the Broncos, and he has posted one defensive tackle. Additionally, he recorded one fumble recovery while defending a kick return. He played at cornerback in passing situations vs. Mia. (12/12) and made two stops on special teams. At S.D. (12/5), he returned four kicks for 62 yards (15.5 avg.) while seeing a few snaps on defense in passing situations. He gained 85 yards on four kick returns (21.3 avg.) vs. Oak. (11/28) and protected the ball despite the snowy, frigid conditions on the field. Alexander scooped up the first fumble recovery of his career at N.O. (11/21) on a first-quarter kick return by Michael Lewis, who had the ball jarred free by Terry Pierce. Later in that game, Alexander downed a 37-yard punt at the Saints' 3-yard line and also made a tackle on special teams. The rookie was a factor on kickoff returns in New Orleans, gaining 87 yards on four returns (21.8 avg.), including a 28-yard return in the second quarter. He made a special teams tackle vs. Hou. (11/7). Returning kicks for the first time since the season opener vs. Atl. (10/31), he gained 79 yards on four returns (19.8 avg.), including a 25-yard return to begin the game and put Denver in solid field position for their first touchdown drive. He also tallied one special teams tackle against the Falcons. Alexander tackled Bengals kick return Cliff Russell on the opening kickoff on Monday Night Football at Cin. (10/25), stopping Russell after a 17-yard return. With nickel back Willie Middlebrooks out with a hamstring injury at Oak. (10/17) and cornerback Lenny Walls having left the game in the fourth quarter with a separated shoulder, Alexander saw some time at defensive back in addition to his special teams duties against the Raiders. He recorded one stop on special teams against the Raiders. In Denver's comeback win vs. Car. (10/10), he played on special teams only. He pulled down kick returner Jamel White at T.B. (10/3) at the end of a 44-yard return in the fourth quarter, keeping the Buccaneers outside of Broncos territory. He also tackled another Buccaneer on special teams that day. He made a tackle on special teams vs. S.D. (9/26) while also seeing several plays on defense. He did not record any defensive action at Jac. (9/19) but made a special teams stop against the Jaguars. Alexander returned two kicks for 55 yards (27.5 avg.) vs. K.C. (9/12). His 27.5 avg. was the second-highest return average in the AFC for Wk. 1, trailing only teammate Reuben Droughns. Alexander came up big on the defensive side of the ball late in the game with cornerbacks Lenny Walls (shoulder) and Kelly Herndon (cramps) forced out, making a key third-down tackle on Chiefs wide receiver Eddie Kennison.

He ranks fourth on the team and leads all cornerbacks in tackles with 71 (63 solo) and has three of the Broncos' 10 interceptions this season along with 10 pass breakups. Feeley passes vs. Mia. (12/12) and made three tackles (all solo). In a solid performance by the Broncos' defensive backs at S.D. (12/5), Bailey had six tackles (all solo) and helped limit Drew Brees to a season-low 106 passing yards. Bailey extended his consecutive starts streak to 91 vs. Oak. (11/28). He displayed tremendous closing speed in intercepting a fourth-down Aaron Brooks pass in the end zone at N.O. (11/21) in a game in which he led Denver with 13 tackles (11 solo). He initially was ruled as making the catch out of bounds, but the call was changed to an interception after a replay challenge. Bailey made five tackles (all solo) vs. Hou. (11/7) and helped limit up-and-coming Texans receiver Andre Johnson to three catches for only 28 yards (9.3 avg.). In Denver's game vs. Atl. He upended Vick with a hard-hitting open-field tackle late in the second quarter, limiting Vick to a 5-yard gain. Bailey was kept busy on Monday Night Football at Cin. (10/25) by the Bengals' Chad Johnson with many of his nine tackles (8 solo) coming from stops on the Pro Bowler. Bailey recorded a key interception off Bengals quarterback Carson Palmer on a third down at the Broncos' 10-yard line in the second quarter, making a great catch for his second interception of the season. Additionally, he has played at receiver in three games, mostly on third-down situations, catching a pass for 11 yards. At Oak. (10/17), Bailey helped limit the Raiders to 114 passing yards while also making four tackles (4 solo). Three of his five tackles (4 solo) were for a loss vs. Car. Bailey did not see a snap on offense for the first time all season vs. S.D. (9/26) but had six tackles (4 solo) and one pass breakup while lining up most of the game opposite Chargers receiver Reche Caldwell and limiting him to three catches for 39 yards. Bailey was matched up against Pro Bowl receiver Jimmy Smith at Jac. (9/19) and made five tackles during the game in helping hold Jaguars quarterback Byron Leftwich to only 120 yards passing. He intercepted his first pass as Bronco in the second quarter vs. K.C. (9/12) and made five tackles (4 solo) while playing a part in holding Chiefs Pro-Bowl tight end Tony Gonzalez to only two receptions for 17 yards. The game vs. K.C. was the fourth time (out of a possible six) that Bailey had recorded an interception on opening day. Additionally, he saw action on several third-down situations as a receiver and caught an 11-yard pass from Jake Plummer on a third-and-12 in the first quarter while lined up at running back for the Broncos' first catch of the season. The play marked the first time since 1993 that a Broncos defensive player (LB Dave Wyman) made a reception.

Regular Season Games Played/Games Started: 2004: 12/2; Career: 51/2

2004 Regular Season:

Middlebrooks, a former first-round draft choice, is enjoying his finest season as a pro in 2004 and has developed into a valuable part of Denver's defense. In addition to 17 tackles (16 solo), one sack (-3 yds.) and one fumble recovery in 12 games, Middlebrooks has notched the second-most pass breakups on the team with 10. His seven special-teams tackles tie for fourth on the team. He left Denver's game vs. Mia. (12/12) in the second half to get an X-ray on his right leg and is expected to miss several weeks with the injury. Middlebrooks made his second career start at S.D. (12/5) with the Broncos opening the game in a nickel package, and he finished the game with two tackles (1 solo) and a pass breakup. He registered two tackles on special teams, along with two defensive tackles, vs. Oak. (11/28). At N.O. (11/21), he tallied three tackles (all solo) and broke up an Aaron Brooks pass. He made his first career start (three-cornerback package) vs. Hou. (11/7) and tallied two tackles (all solo) and a stop on special teams. He rotated in at defensive back for a few passing situations vs. Atl. (10/31) but did not make a tackle. As well as making a tackle on Monday Night Football at Cin. (10/25), he broke up a pass in the end zone late in the second quarter intended for Bengals Kelley Washington. Middlebrooks was inactive at Oak. (10/17) with a partially torn left hamstring. Although he did not play in the second half vs. Car. (10/10) with a partially torn left hamstring, he did record two special teams tackles through the game's first two quarters. He had a career game at T.B. (10/3) during which he totaled three tackles (all solo) to go along with his first career sack and fumble recovery. On a third-down blitz in the first quarter, he sacked quarterback Brad Johnson, marking his first career sack, to force the Buccaneers to punt. Perhaps his best play against the Buccaneers came on third down in the fourth quarter of a close game when he leaped to break up a sideline pass intended for Tim Brown. He was a part of Denver takeaway when he scooped up a first-quarter fumble inside the Buccaneers' 45-yard line to give the Broncos excellent field position for their lone touchdown. He has recorded a pass breakup in each game this season, most recently vs. S.D. (9/26) with one on a Drew Brees pass. He made two tackles and broke up a pass at Jac. (9/19) in helping Denver hold Jaguars quarterback Byron Leftwich to only 120 yards passing. Additionally, he made a special teams tackle against Jacksonville. Middlebrooks broke up three passes vs. K.C. (9/12) and saw increased playing time opposite Champ Bailey in the fourth quarter after injuries to cornerbacks Lenny Walls and Kelly Herndon. He also made two tackles (both solo) against the Chiefs.

Before the injury, he posted 21 tackles (18 solo), two pass breakups and one forced fumble in seven games (1 start). Additionally, he made two tackles on special teams. Walls, who made his first start of the season vs. Oak. (11/28) with Denver opening the game in a three-cornerback set, totaled two tackles (2 solo) and a pass breakup against the Raiders before dislocating his right shoulder late in the first half. He added three tackles (all solo) and a pass breakup at N.O. (11/21) while making a stop on special teams against the Saints. Walls contributed three tackles (2 solo) vs. Hou. (11/7). Walls pulled down Falcons quarterback Michael Vick at the end of his 44-yard run in the first quarter and forced a fumble on the play, which the quarterback recovered. He was inactive for the Broncos' Monday Night Football game at Cin. (10/25) with a separated right shoulder suffered a week earlier against the Raiders. After making two tackles (all solo) at Oak. (10/17) and helping limit the Raiders to only 145 yards passing, Walls was forced out of the game in the fourth quarter with a separated right shoulder that was suffered when he made a tackle. After not playing in three consecutive games because of the shoulder injury he suffered in the Broncos' opening game, Walls saw time as the team's nickel back vs. Car. (10/10) and made four tackles (3 solo), including one stop behind the line of scrimmage. The effects of the injury caused him to miss Denver's game at T.B. (10/3). The cornerback dressed but did not play vs. S.D. (9/26) and missed the Broncos' game at Jac. (9/19). He had four tackles (three solo) in that game vs. K.C. (9/12) before separating his right shoulder in the fourth quarter while making a tackle.

(11/28) prevented a score and marked his first career interception as a member of the Broncos. He finished that late November game against the Raiders will four tackles (3 solo) and a pass breakup. (10/17). He also forced a fumble on Raiders receiver Joey Porter at the Denver 8-yard line late in the first half, which was recovered by Kenoy Kennedy, while also helping to limit Oakland to only 114 total passing yards. He moved within one tackle of 1000 career stops with a tackle vs. Car. (10/10) in the Broncos' comeback win. In an emotional return to Tampa Bay (10/3), where he played his first 11 NFL seasons, Lynch turned in an exceptional game against his former teammates with seven tackles (6 solo) and a team-high two pass breakups. Lynch, who received a standing ovation from Buccaneers fans during starting introductions, had one of the game's most important plays when he slipped past the Buccaneers' offensive line on a third-and-2 in the fourth quarter of a close game, stopping fullback Mike Alstott for a 2-yard loss. He frequently was used on blitzes vs. S.D. (9/26) and recorded four tackles (3 solo) and a pass breakup against the Chargers. He was successful on his two other attempts at Jacksonville, a 44-yard kick that bounced off the left upright before clearing the bar and a 22-yarder, to account for Denver's only points that game. Elam had a strong opening to the 2004 season vs. K.C. DEFENSIVE TACKLE

Ellis Johnson, an accomplished defensive tackle who led all NFL interior linemen in sacks last season, joined the Broncos on Sept. 20, 2004, in a trade with Atlanta for an undisclosed draft choice. In 136 career games (89 starts), Johnson has made 532 tackles (273 solo) and recorded 48 sacks (-315 yds.), highlighted by his eight sacks in 2003 that tied a personal best. He has eight multiple-sack games during his nine years in the NFL spent with the Colts (1995-01) and Falcons (2002-03). A durable veteran who has missed only eight games in his career, Johnson should add to an already potent Denver defense by providing an inside pass-rushing threat on the Broncos' defensive line. He spent the previous two seasons with the Falcons, where he was a vital member of their defensive unit. He played in 32 games (5 starts) for Atlanta and totaled 118 tackles (65 solo) with 15 sacks (-107 yds.) from 2002-03 after the team signed him as a free agent Sept. 1, 2002. Johnson spent his first seven seasons in the NFL with the Colts and started every game he played during a five-year span from 1997-2001 (76 games). The Colts' leader in sacks in 1998 with eight (-34 yds.), Johnson's sack total that year also was a personal best and complimented his 75 tackles (48 solo). That season came before a strong 1999 campaign that saw him register 7.5 sacks (-46.5 yds.) and 76 tackles (34 solo). The Colts selected Johnson in the first round (15th overall) of the 1995 NFL draft out of Florida, and he played in all 16 regular-season games as a rookie (2 starts), totaling 4.5 sacks (-26 yds.), while seeing action in three Indianapolis playoff games (1 start) that year. At Florida, Johnson was a three-year starter and totaled 165 tackles (112 solo), 17.5 sacks (-134 yds.), six forced fumbles and one fumble recovery in 44 games (26 starts) during four seasons with the Gators. His 36.5 career tackles for loss rank 10th all-time in Florida history. He was named National Defensive Player of the Year by CNN as a senior in addition to being tabbed a first-team All-Southeastern Conference selection and earning honorable mention All-American honors from The Sporting News.

2003: Johnson played in 16 games (3 starts) in his second season with the Falcons, collecting 64 tackles (35 solo) and eight sacks (-49 yds.). His eight sacks led all interior linemen in the NFL and tied his personal best, which he set in 1998 with the Colts. He had a pair of two-sack games with his first of the season coming vs. New Orleans (10/19) when he pulled down Saints quarterback Aaron Brooks twice for nine yards to post five tackles. A little over a month later at Houston (11/30), two of his seven total tackles were sacks (-9 yds.) to mark the eighth multiple-sack game of Johnson's career. During the Falcons' game at Carolina (9/28), he tied for the lead among Atlanta defensive linemen with seven tackles (6 solo). He had a strong game vs. Washington (9/14) with five tackles (4 solo) and a sack.

2002: Johnson was signed by the Falcons as a free agent on Sept. 1 after the Colts waived him Aug. 28. Playing in a new defensive system, he finished the year with 54 tackles (30 solo), seven sacks (-58 yds.) and one forced fumble in 16 games (2 starts). His seven sacks were second most by a Falcons player and were supplemented by 13 quarterback pressures. In Atlanta's upset win at Green Bay (1/4/03) in an NFC Wild Card Game, Johnson tackled Packers running back Ahman Green for a 4-yard loss on fourth down with Green Bay threatening to score in the second quarter. He combined for four tackles (3 solo) during the Falcons' two playoff games. He had one sack (-6 yds.), six tackles and a sea-son-high three quarterback pressures at Minnesota (12/1). At Carolina (11/24), he added two sacks (-17 yds.). Johnson came off the bench vs. Baltimore (11/3) and enjoyed a strong game for the Falcons as he collected six tackles, one sack (-10 yds.) and one quarterback pressure.

2001: Johnson started all 16 games at right defensive tackle for the Colts to mark the third time in his career and the third time in the last four seasons that he has started 16 games. He registered 61 tackles (25 solo), 3.5 sacks (-38.5 yds.), two batted passes and one forced fumble in his final year in Indianapolis. Johnson showed consistency during his seventh NFL season by making at least four tackles in 11 games. He had a strong game vs. Denver (1/6/02) with one sack (-7 yds.) and four tackles against the Broncos. During the Colts' game vs. Atlanta (12/16), he collected six tackles and 1.5 sacks (-17.5 yds.). In a game at New Orleans (11/18), Johnson made his first sack of the season for a 14-yard loss and totaled three tackles. He made two stops vs. New England (10/21). Johnson had several strong performances in September, making five tackles vs. Buffalo (9/23) and four tackles at N.Y. Jets (9/9).

2000: Johnson played in 13 games (13 starts) at right defensive tackle and made 58 tackles (25 solo) with five sacks (-25 yds.), one interception and one forced fumble. He was inactive for three games (vs. Detroit (10/29), at Chicago (11/5) and vs. N.Y. Jets (11/12)) with a knee injury. He started in the Colts' AFC Wild Card Game at Miami (12/30) and recorded six tackles (3 solo) and one sack, his first ever in the playoffs, that went for -4.5 yards. The Colts played vs. Miami (11/26) a month before their playoff showdown with the Dolphins, and Johnson turned in an equally impressive game that day with five tackles and one sack (0 yds.). A week earlier at Green Bay (11/19), he produced four tackles, one sack and the second interception of his career against the Packers. When the Colts visited Seattle (10/15), he came through with three tackles, one sack and a forced fumble. He posted back-to-back five-tackle games at Buffalo (10/1) and at New England (10/8). Johnson was a dominating presence on the defensive line vs. Oakland (9/10) with seven tackles.

1999: Johnson started all 16 games at right defensive tackle, totaling 76 tackles (34 solo) and 7.5 sacks (-46.5 yds.) while recovering one fumble and breaking up three passes. His sack total in 1999 was the second-highest total among Colts defenders. Johnson started in the Colts' AFC Divisional Playoff Game vs. Tennessee (1/16/00), making four tackles (1 solo). While visiting the Giants (1/14), he turned in a strong showing with seven tackles (3 solo) and two sacks (-11 yds.). Johnson's season-high in tackles came when he had 10 stops vs. Kansas City (11/7). Two weeks earlier, Johnson made six tackles and two sacks (the third multiple-sack game of his career) vs. Cincinnati (10/24). He added five tackles, including one sack, at N.Y. Jets (10/17). The sack against the Jets came on the game's final play to seal the win for the Colts. In a game at San Diego (9/26), Johnson totaled six tackles and half a sack (-3.5 yds.).

1998: Johnson posted the most complete season of his career and was one of seven Colts to start all 16 games. His 75 tackles (48 solo) were fifth most on the team, and his eight sacks (-34 yds.) were a team and career high. Additionally, he registered one forced fumble and three pass breakups for the Colts. Johnson totaled the second multiple-sack game of his career vs. Carolina (12/27) with two sacks (-9 yds.) to go along with nine tackles and his lone forced fumble of the season. He posted back-to-back games with a sack at Seattle (12/20) and vs. Cincinnati (12/13). In a performance vs. San Diego (10/4), he created havoc on the defensive line with seven tackles (5 solo). His season-high in tackles came vs. New Orleans (9/27) with 10 stops and one sack against the Saints.

1997: Johnson continued his development in his third NFL season with 69 tackles (41 solo), 4.5 sacks (-38 yds.), one interception and two fumble recoveries while playing and starting in 15 games. He ranked fifth on the team in tackles while his sack total tied for the second-highest total among Colts. He played games 1-10 and 13-16 at right defensive tackle, and the lineman started at left defensive tackle at Detroit (11/23). The only game he missed in 1997 was the Colts' game vs. Green Bay (11/16) when a knee injury kept him off the field. His three sacks (-25 yds.) at N.Y. Jets (12/7) were a career high, and he also contributed six tackles. Johnson blocked a field goal at San Diego (10/26), which resulted in a 42-yard return for a touchdown by one of his teammates. A week earlier, he chipped in a season-high nine tackles vs. Buffalo (10/20). Johnson's first career interception came at Buffalo (9/21).

1996: Johnson followed up an impressive rookie campaign by appearing in 12 games (6 starts) and totaling 40 tackles (21 solo) with one pass breakup for the Colts. He started games 5-8 at left defensive end and games 14-15 at right defensive tackle when he filled in for injured Colts tackle Tony Siragusa. In the Colts' AFC Wild Card Game at Pittsburgh (12/29), Johnson was used as a reserve and had a huge game with seven tackles (6 solo). His turned in a strong performance at New England (11/24), when he made seven tackles. Johnson's season got off to a frustrating start after two concussions, the first of which was suffered in training camp and preceded another one in a preseason game vs. Green Bay (8/24), forced him inactive for the first four games of the season.

1995: A first-round draft pick (15th overall), Johnson saw action in all 16 regular-season games (2 starts) during his rookie year with the Colts. He totaled 35 tackles (14 solo) and 4.5 sacks (-26 yds.) on the season. His two starts came at left defensive tackle in consecutive weeks: at N.Y. Jets (9/10) and at Buffalo (9/17), which was a game he started in place of Tony Siragusa and recorded half of a sack to mark the first of his career. He played in all three of the Colts' playoff games, starting at Kansas City (1/7/96), and combined for four tackles (3 solo) in the postseason. In Indianapolis' game vs. San Diego (12/17), he tallied five tackles and one sack against the Chargers. He also notched a sack vs. San Francisco (10/15) for -6 yds., vs. Buffalo (11/5) for -6 yds. and at Jacksonville (12/10) for -7 yds.

COLLEGE: One of the most decorated defensive linemen ever to play at Florida, Johnson was named National Defensive Player of the Year by CNN following his senior year in 1994 after recording 62 tackles (14.5 for a loss), 6.5 sacks (-63 yds.) and five forced fumbles. A three-year starter, he totaled 165 career tackles (112 solo) with 36.5 going for a loss, 17.5 sacks (-134 yds.), six forced fumbles and one fumble recovery in 44 games (26 starts) during four years with the Gators. In addition, his final year at Florida saw the Wildwood, Fla., native pick up first-team All-Southeastern Conference honors as well as honorable mention All-American accolades from The Sporting News. Johnson, whose 36.5 career tackles for loss rank 10th all-time in Florida history, was named Most Valuable Player of the 1994 SEC Championship game.

PERSONAL: Johnson attended Wildwood High School in Wildwood, Fla., where he played six different positions (defensive tackle, offensive tackle, fullback, nose guard, defensive end and linebacker) as a senior. An avid outdoorsman who enjoys fishing, Johnson was a member of a hunting and fishing club while with the Colts and owns two farms in Indianapolis. He also is a licensed pilot. At the University of Florida, Johnson was a linguistics major and studied the African dialect of Yoruba (a tribe in Nigeria and Benin). Johnson and his wife, Simone, have two children: Nichole (9) and Ellis Jr. (6). Ellis Bernard Johnson was born Oct. 30, 1973, in Wildwood, Fla., and resides in Indianapolis.

DEFENSIVE END

Anton Palepoi (PAL-a-poy) is an agile defensive end who will provide depth and speed at that position for the Broncos while looking to contribute on special teams. Entering his third season, the former second-round draft choice should continue his development with Denver, which signed him Sept. 22, 2004. Palepoi was drafted by the Seahawks in 2002 and was with the team for two full seasons as well as this year's preseason before being released Sept. 14. In 20 career games (1 start), Palepoi has totaled 20 tackles (11 solo), one sack (-7.0 yds.), two passes defended and one forced fumble to go along with five tackles on special teams. Additionally, he has returned two kickoffs for 22 yards (11.0 avg.) He was selected in the second round (60th overall) of the 2002 NFL Draft from UNLV.

2003: Palepoi played as a reserve defensive end while seeing action on special teams, appearing in seven games (0 starts) and recording three tackles (1 solo) defensively. On kickoff and punt coverage, he made two tackles. He also returned one kickoff for 14 yards at Arizona (9/14). Palepoi played at defensive end as well as on special teams in the Seahawks' NFC Wild Card Game at Green Bay (1/4/04), making one stop on special teams. In the Seahawks' game at Minnesota (12/7), Palepoi had a season-best two tackles (1 solo).

2002: Palepoi showed promise in his rookie season, appearing in 13 games (1 start) and totaling 17 tackles (10 solo), one sack (-7.0 yds.), two passes defended and one forced fumble. He also played on the Seahawks' special teams unit, where he recorded three tackles and returned a kickoff eight yards vs. Denver (11/17). He made his first career start vs. Philadelphia (12/8) in place of Lamar King but suffered an ankle injury in the second quarter that kept him out for the remainder of the game. As a result of the injury, Palepoi was inactive for Seattle's remaining three games. At San Francisco (12/1), Palepoi had his second-consecutive three-tackle game to tie a career high. One week earlier, he made three defensive stops vs. Kansas City (11/24). He posted his first career sack vs. Minnesota (9/29) when he pulled down Vikings quarterback Daunte Culpepper for a loss of seven yards. Palepoi's first-ever forced fumble also occurred against the Vikings that day.
